Joan was in her 80's. When her husband, Richard died, it was the worst experience of her life. Yet, she did not fall apart. Richard had been sick for about three years, in and out of hospitals more times than she could remember. He suffered a lot during that time. And, indirectly, so did she.

Here's why Joan didn't fall apart during this difficult time: she was daily inspired by how Richard responded to his illness. Although she had always known her husband to be a man of exceptional character, the way he responded to setbacks and sickness was exceptional. She would often think to herself: "I couldn't handle this the way Richard does".

So here's Joan sitting in the conference room of the parish rectory. She's with her two sons and her daughter to plan the funeral for her husband. During the session she's asked, "Is there anything about your husband that might be good to mention to help Father prepare his homily for the Mass?"

And she responded, "My husband was always a man of great faith. When he found out that he was really sick, he reminded me of his favorite line from Scripture: 'Bear your share of hardship for the Gospel with the strength that comes from God.' He said that whenever he read it he was able to put things back in proper perspective and keep himself calm. Richard would always say that no one gets through this life without having to deal with challenges and suffering. But he learned to trust God in good times and in the bad times. He was confident that God would help him, and that some good would come of the most difficult of situations. For Richard, God's plan was the one he was going to follow, not his plan. He felt that God knew what he was doing, and therefore he was going to trust him. Because of his strong faith, Richard rarely lost his cool, and he never complained about all the difficulties he experienced. So, maybe this will help Father when he writes his homily."

St. Paul's letter to Timothy speaks powerfully to us across the centuries. Especially during Lent. Bear your share of hardship with the strength that comes from God. So try not to panic when things go wrong in your life. God will not abandon you. So try not to let the devil take away your sense of peace.

Father Cizek said, in one of his conferences when he came back to America, that one of the ways that we can keep the devil from stealing our peace is to have patience with ourselves:

"Patience with ourselves flows really from the virtue of temperance, the habit of being moderate or *reacting moderately when trying circumstances rise up against us...*for when we are patient with ourselves...then we know he will help us not to sin and will forgive us when we do. Most of all, it will prove that we love him enough to offer him the many, many imperfect acts of our day and know that Our Father made us because he loves us. He will accept these acts as sacred and sublime gifts with a blindness that only love can achieve."

So bear your share of hardship with the strength that comes from God.

Who Made the First Way of the Cross?

The Stations as we know them were born of tradition nearly as old as the Church. Who do we thank for this beautiful devotion? We owe our thanks to the Blessed Mother. According to an ancient tradition, it was she who made the first Way of the Cross. Blessed Anne Catherine Emmerich, one of the Church's modern mystics and visionaries, relates to us some of the details, as they were revealed to her, of how this devotion came about. After the Ascension, Our Lady immersed herself in the contemplation and remembrance of the Passion. Blessed Anne tells us that she went out daily and traced the route of the Cross through Jerusalem.

The Blessed Mother, relates Bl. Anne, was grave and shed "tears of compassion" as she walked the Way.

When the Blessed Mother moved from Jerusalem to Ephesus, she quickly marked a space for replicating the Way. Blessed Anne Catherine describes the new Way, saying:

Soon after her arrival at her new home [in Ephesus] I saw her every day climbing part of the way up the hill behind her house to carry out this devotion. At first she went by herself, measuring the number of steps, so often counted by her, which separated the places of Our Lord's different sufferings. At each of these places she put up a stone, or, if there was already a tree there, she made a mark upon it. The way led into a wood, and upon a hill in this wood she had marked the place of Calvary, and the grave of Christ in a little cave in another hill.

Bl. Anne goes on to explain that at first, the Blessed Mother made this Way alone. Later, she brought her maidservant with her to meditate on the Passion and praise Our Lord for it. After her Assumption, the site became well-known by Christians. They made access to the Way easier, beautifying it with both material and spiritual attentions. Our Lady, in making the first Way, gave us a tremendous gift. The Stations of the Cross that are erected in every Catholic Church, and which are traditionally prayed by Christians on Fridays—especially during Lent—are a spiritual heritage given to us directly from Our Blessed Mother! Source: getfed.catholiccompany.com/who-made-the-first-way-of-the-cross

WE'RE GETTING READY FOR THE FUTURE AND YOUR INPUT MATTERS!

Our Parish has been growing!

Church membership, school enrollment and ministry involvement are all very strong.

As a result, the time has come to enhance our church to better serve our worship needs and to respond to our school's expanding enrollment with additional classroom space to better support the learning environment for our students.

Both renovation projects seek to position our community for a strong future rooted in faith!

Next weekend we will begin our Parish outreach with an introductory survey. This will be the first of many communications and outreach efforts.

Your thoughts and voice will help to shape our plans. We look forward to your participation.

Join us—Good Friday, April 7th, 12:30 pm

Seven Last Words of Jesus

Parishioners lead this Scripture and reflection service. A prayer pamphlet will be available for participation and meditation.

Rid Your Heart of Weeds

I have promised to meet all your needs according to My glorious riches. Your deepest, most constant need is for My peace. I have planted Peace in the garden of your heart, where I live, but there are weeds growing there too: pride, worry, selfishness, unbelief.

I am the Gardener, and I am working to rid your heart of those weeds. I do My work in various ways. When you sit quietly with Me, I shine the Light of My Presence directly into your heart. In this heavenly Light, Peace grows abundantly and weeds shrivel up.

I also send trials into your life. When you trust Me in the midst of trouble, Peace flourishes and weeds die away. Thank Me for the troublesome situations; the Peace they can produce far outweighs the trials you endure.

The Story of Death - Episode 1

Where did death come from? What does death mean for the human person? Is it simply just part of life, or is it something else? In this first session, we discuss the story of death and God's response to it: defeating death by dying and rising from the dead.

Living Lent as a Family (Part 2 of 4)

Dr. Ben Akers sits down with Keenan and Bri Fitzpatrick, parents of four, to discuss liturgical living during Lent and marks of the Christian home in our world today.

Say Yest to Christ: Allowing Jesus to be Lord of your Life

Mary conformed the entirety of her life to the Divine Will. In doing so, she became the model of perfect discipleship. In this talk, Dr. Scott Hahn discusses why we too should surrender our lives to the Lord.

Mar. 17: St. Patrick, Bishop (387-461)

St. Patrick of Ireland is one of the world's most popular saints. He was born in Roman Britain and when he was fourteen or so, he was captured by Irish pirates during a raiding party and taken to Ireland as a slave to herd and tend sheep. At the time, Ireland was a land of Druids and pagans but Patrick turned to God and wrote his memoir, The Confession. In The Confession, he wrote:

"I prayed in the woods and on the mountain, even before dawn. I felt no hurt from the snow or ice or rain."

Patrick's captivity lasted until he was twenty, when he escaped after having a dream from God in which he was told to leave Ireland by going to the coast. There he found some sailors who took him back to Britain and was reunited with his family.

A few years after returning home, Patrick saw a vision he described in his memoir:

"I saw a man coming, as it were from Ireland. His name was Victoricus, and he carried many letters, and he gave me one of them. I read the heading: 'The Voice of the Irish.' As I began the letter, I imagined in that moment that I heard the voice of those very people who were near the wood of Foclut, which is beside the western sea-and they cried out, as with one voice: 'We appeal to you, holy servant boy, to come and walk among us.'"

The vision prompted his studies for the priesthood. He was ordained by St. Germanus, the Bishop of Auxerre, whom he had studied under for years, and was later ordained a Bishop and sent to take the Gospel to Ireland.

Patrick arrived in Slane, Ireland on March 25, 433. There are several legends about what happened next, with the most prominent claiming he met the chieftan of one of the druid tribes, who tried to kill him. After an intervention from God, Patrick was able to convert the chieftain and preach the Gospel throughout Ireland. There, he converted many people -eventually thousands - and he began building churches across the country.

He often used shamrocks to explain the Holy Trinity and entire kingdoms were eventually converted to Christianity after hearing Patrick's message.

Patrick preached and converted all of Ireland for 40 years. He worked many miracles and wrote of his love for God in Confessions. After years of living in poverty, traveling and enduring much suffering he died March 17, 461.

He died at Saul, where he had built the first Irish church. He is believed to be buried in Down Cathedral, Downpatrick. His grave was marked in 1990 with a granite stone. Source: catholic.org/saints/
