SJN BLOOD DRIVE!

Saturday, April 15

9:00 am—2:00 pm — Life Center

GIVE THE GIFT OF LIFE!

www.redcross.org/give-blood.html

Sponsor Code: SJNeumann

American

Imagine a man carrying an important message through the jungle. Off the path he sees something moving through the trees. It shines like gold. He doesn't want to leave the path because the message is urgent and the jungle is dangerous---there are tribes of cannibals around. But then he sees the flashing gold again. His curiosity gets the better of him. He wants the gold.

So, he abandons his mission, leaves the path, and goes after this gold image. He follows it far from the path. Suddenly he feels the ground beneath him give way. It's a trap. He finds himself in a pit. The walls are too steep for him to climb. They are too high to pull himself out. He is doomed.

This is Adam. He had been given a mission by God---to fill and cultivate the earth. But, lured by the devil, he had abandoned his mission and his God and had thrown human beings into the pit of sin.

Now imagine another man finding the pit with Adam inside. He can't reach Adam with his arms or with a branch because the walls are too slippery and high. So he climbs down into the pit himself. Now the trapped man can climb onto his shoulders, reach the edge of the pit and escape. But the second man has to stay behind.

The second man is Christ. He came among us and freely took upon himself our own sufferings, restoring our friendship with God and giving us a fresh chance to fulfill our mission.

This is the victory we celebrate.

Holy Week is a Kind of Homecoming!

As our Lord approached the city, a great multitude came out to meet him. They waved palm branches and spread their cloaks before him. Cries rang forth from their hearts as they shouted from the depths of their souls, "Hosanna, Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!"

On Palm Sunday, we re-enact, we remember the Lord's triumphant entry to Jerusalem. By our words and actions, the Lord gives us the grace to make present in the here-and-now the mercy poured out in days of old.

The words of the liturgy pierce us. They are familiar and well-worn. Holy Week is a kind of homecoming, a return to a place we know and love. This return, filled with all the joy of an arrival, is an opportunity to discover hidden meanings, new depths of Christ's work in our lives.

One simple example: What is the cry "Hosanna"? We say 'Hosanna' at every Holy Mass. But what does it mean?

SUPPLICATION

Hosanna was prayed by the priests of Israel as part of the celebration of a Temple feast in Jerusalem. It was a supplication, a crying out. It was a plea for God to hear and answer Israel's cries for deliverance. John the Evangelist writes in his Gospel, "Blessed are you, who have come in your abundant mercy! O gates, lift high your heads; grow higher, ancient doors. Let him enter, the king of glory! Who is this king of glory? He, the Lord of hosts, he is the king of glory. Hosanna in the highest!" The words of the Gospel, quoted from Psalm 24, can be understood as describing the assembly moving to the holy city. As the people of God grew closer to the place of the Temple where they would invoke God, the gates loomed larger.

PRAISE

Hosanna is a cry of praise. We shout HOSANNA to thank almighty God for the wonderful work he has done. God has remembered his covenant of old. He has been faithful to his promise to Israel; that he would send a savior from the house of David. And so we cry out, "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that is to come! Hosanna in the highest!" (Mk 11:10).

BLESSING

To cry "Hosanna!" Means to grant adulation and honor to the name of the Lord.

For Israel, God's name is holy and by extension the words we use to bless are particular. Hosanna is a sanctifying cry, making holy in the name of the Lord the things blessed by our acclaim. Every Sunday as we sing the Sanctus (the Holy, Holy, Holy) we sing these words: "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!" It is a cry of welcome, and acclamation, for at every Mass, we welcome our King. May we cut green branches and spread our cloaks, making our hearts ready places, places fit to welcome Christ our King!

MAKE THIS AN IMPACTFUL HOLY WEEK — JOIN IN!

PALM SUNDAY, PASSION SUNDAY

We remember Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem on a donkey which fulfills the prophecy from Zechariah. The pilgrims who came with Jesus were enthusiastic, spread their garments on the road where Jesus passed, waved tree branches and cried out, "Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest", recognizing him as their messianic king. We participate in the narrative of the Passion on this Sunday. — ncregister.com

PASCHAL TRIDIUM

• HOLY THURSDAY—THE FEAST OF THE LORD'S SUPPER:

The commemoration of the Institution of the Eucharist at the Last Supper, when Jesus and his apostles gathered to celebrate Passover. Jesus also washed the feet of his apostles and commanded them to do for others as he has done for them.

• GOOD FRIDAY — CELEBRATION OF THE LORD'S PASSION:

The anniversary of the Crucifixion of Christ. We again partake in the reading of the Passion and also venerate the cross to show reverence to the instrument that was used to crucify Jesus.

Through the Cross comes resurrection. We honor what Christ has done for us and are reminded to embrace the crosses in our own lives. The most sacred hours during Good Friday are from noon to 3:00, when Jesus was on the cross.

• HOLY SATURDAY — EASTER VIGIL IN THE HOLY NIGHT:

This celebration tells the story of our salvation — from creation to resurrection and beyond. The Easter Vigil includes the lighting of the Easter Fire and Paschal Candle, the singing of the Exsultet (the Easter Proclamation), the expanded Liturgy of the Word that traces through Salvation History, the Liturgy of Initiation (candidates come into the Catholic Church), and the celebration of the Holy Eucharist.

Anima Christi

Soul of Christ, sanctify me;
 Body of Christ, save me;
 Blood of Christ, inebriate me;
 Water from the side of Christ, wash me;
 Passion of Christ, strengthen me;
 O good Jesus, hear me;
 Within your wounds hide me;
 Separated from you, let me never be;
 From the evil one protect me;
 At the hour of my death, call me;
 And close to you bid me;
 That with your saints, I may be,
 praising you forever and ever. Amen

On Good Friday, we begin the Chaplet of Divine Mercy Novena in preparation for the Sunday of Divine Mercy (the second Sunday of Easter).

On this day, for those who prepare & participate, Jesus offers extraordinary graces and indulgences.

Join us—Good Friday, April 7th, 12:30 pm for a prayer service on the Seven Last Words of Jesus

A prayer pamphlet will be available for participation and meditation.

THE SEVEN LAST WORDS

While on the Cross, Jesus speaks his last words to us, sharing important messages that we can trust in to fully live out our lives. Join this service to dig deeper into the meaning of these words.

- ◆ Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do.
- ◆ Today you shall be with me in paradise.
- ◆ Woman, behold your son... Behold your mother
- ◆ My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?
- ◆ I thirst.
- ◆ It is finished.
- ◆ Father, into your hands I commend my spirit.

One of the most beloved traditions at SCJN School is Prayer Partners. At various times throughout the year, our younger students and older students pair together to not only work on projects and read books but more importantly form friendships. It is so much fun when our Prayer Partners see each other in the hallways, lots of smiles and high fives.
