Margot James McKenzie

DAUGHTER OF JAMES AND LAURA

Parker James Musser

SON OF LUKE AND LAUREN

Nick was sitting in an RCIA class and found himself really struggling with what the catechist was teaching. The group was having a discussion about mercy and forgiveness, and the source of that discussion was a passage from the Gospel of Matthew where Jesus tells a parable in answer St Peter's question: "Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?"

What Nick kept thinking about while the class was going on was how he had been taken advantage of at the place where he had worked several years ago. He wasn't there anymore, but the idea of forgiving those people who had lied to him and manipulated things so that the job he'd thought was coming to him ended up going to someone else (who actually had no qualifications at all for that particular position), was almost too much to consider. And yet that's what the RCIA instructor seemed to be saying. As an aspiring Catholic, he thought to himself, am I supposed to forgive people like that?

The catechist then quoted a passage from Sirach: "Wrath and anger are hateful things, yet the sinner hugs them tight." Nick had to admit that he was holding on to anger, and not just about that nasty work situation, but about other things that "had been done to him" over the years. Am I a sinner because I am holding on to these things and holding on to all of this anger?

I think there are many of us who think like Nick. There's a particular situation that we have experienced that was so hurtful that forgiveness just seems impossible. And yet, at the same time are we hugging too tightly to the anger that we feel or are we trying to redirect it? If the Lord is asking us to be merciful, how can we begin to approach following this command?

Here's something to consider: The only reason I can forgive, have mercy, be compassionate, perform a work of kindness, is that God has done these things toward me first. As we have been forgiven by God time and time again, so we must try to forgive others.

In the parable that Jesus tells, being unmerciful is the most serious sin, worthy of being condemned. "Should you not have had pity on your fellow servant, as I had pity on you?" Mercilessness is really the enemy of Jesus' call to us on how we are to live our life.

For Jesus, the mercy given to us must be poured out toward others. And we must pray for the grace to be able to do this. We are asked to forgive as God has forgiven us. Here's a great insight about this:

"But as one who time and again is forgiven a debt that I cannot even begin to repay, I must necessarily also become one who time and again himself forgives. That I can be offended and wronged Jesus in no way denies. However, the fact is that I can forgive as God forgives, because I have already been forgiven an offense infinitely greater than any I can ever suffer. This reality transforms a condition of hurt and insult into an opportunity to imitate and participate in the very nature of God.

So, the ability to forgive the deepest hurts begins with a look at ourselves and what it is that Christ has done for me first. Mercy has been poured out to us, and we are to allow that flow of mercy to continue through us towards others—to channel that gift as the Lord deeply intends.

So, the ability to forgive the deepest hurts begins with a look at ourselves and what it is that Christ has done for me first. Mercy has been poured out to us, and we are to allow that flow of mercy to continue through us towards others—to channel that gift as the Lord deeply intends.

CATHOLIC SCHOOL
An Independence Mission School

Thank you!

We had a ton of fun delivering the school supplies this year. Why so special? The school kids unloaded the supplies from the car rather than the facilities team. They were over the moon. They kept saying with joy, "All of this is for us?!!!" It was so precious. The loudest scream of excitement was, "Backpacks!!". (No one screamed with delight over the composition books — ha, ha). They were in amazement. We had lots of fun with many smiles — worth all the effort.

ADULT BIBLE STUDY RETURNS!
MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 7:00PM

- * Schedule adjustments: No session Oct. 9 or 23. Oct. 16th—meet at the Rectory Meeting Room

Healing Mass —

Saturday, October 7th @ 5:15 pm

If you know a parishioner who may benefit from receiving the anointing, or if you yourself would like to receive the Sacrament, please register in advance:

Contact Clare at the Rectory: 610-525-3100 or email: healing@sjnparish.org

The Anointing of the Sick is one of the seven Catholic sacraments.

In the essential rite of the sacrament, the priest lays his hands on the sick person's head. Then he anoints the person on the forehead and palms of the hands with the oil of the sick, a holy oil that has been blessed by the bishop.

"Come to me, all you who are weary and find life burdensome, and I will refresh you. Take my yoke upon your shoulders and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble of heart. Your souls will find rest, for my yoke is easy and my burden light."

— Matthew 11:28-30

Family Faith Weekend & Beyond

We had a great time! Many stopped by — from our youngest to our oldest and lots of items were picked up.

Did you miss it?

We will rotate literature items through our donation-based media rack throughout the year. Stop by whenever the church is open (located in the hall that connects the church to the Gathering Room). The first to rotate in include:

- ♦ The Early Church was the Catholic Church: The earliest Christians were Catholics... Explore this claim!
- ♦ The Bible is a Catholic Book: Follow the Bible's roots to the early Church and discover the Bible as a Catholic work that is fully integrated to the Church.
- ♦ Pause in Wonder: Finding greater joy in life.
- ♦ Kingdom of Happiness: Living the beatitudes in everyday life.
- ♦ Salvation: What exactly does 'salvation' mean? What it is and what it isn't'.

A Prayer to Become More Generous

Lord Jesus, teach me to be generous.
Teach me to serve as you deserve,
To give and not to count the cost,
To fight and not to heed the wounds,
To labor and not to seek to rest,
To give of my self and not ask for a reward,
Except the reward of knowing that I am doing your will.

FORMED

THE CATHOLIC FAITH. ON DEMAND.

Who Are The Angels?

Dr. Ben Akers sits down with Dr. Mark Miravalle, Saint John Paul II Chair of Mariology at Franciscan University of Steubenville, to discuss the angels. What is an angel? What are the choirs of angels? How do we engage with our guardian angels?

St. Jerome | Catholic Saints

An early Church Father from the 4th century, St. Jerome translated the Bible into Latin with the desire to make Scripture more accessible. St.

Jerome is the patron of biblical scholars, translators, and archivists and famously said, "Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ."

Who Are The Archangels?

Dr. Ben Akers and Dr. Elizabeth Klein discuss archangels and what role they have in our lives.

Saints Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael (Sept. 29)

Angels—messengers from God—appear frequently in Scripture, but only Michael, Gabriel and Raphael are named.

Michael appears in Daniel's vision as "the great prince" who defends Israel against its enemies; in the Book of Revelation, he leads God's armies to final victory over the forces of evil. Devotion to Michael is the oldest angelic devotion, rising in the East in the fourth century. The Church in the West began to observe a feast honoring Michael and the angels in the fifth century.

Raphael's activity is confined to the Old Testament story of Tobit. There he appears to guide Tobit's son Tobiah through a series of fantastic adventures which lead to a threefold happy ending: Tobiah's marriage to Sarah, the healing of Tobit's blindness, and the restoration of the family fortune.

Gabriel also makes an appearance in Daniel's visions, announcing Michael's role in God's plan. His best-known appearance is an encounter with a young Jewish girl named Mary, who consents to bear the Messiah.

LITTLE CHURCH SCHOOL (LCS) — Offered for youth from 3 years old thru Kindergarten.

STARTS SUNDAY, SEPT. 24 DURING THE 9:00 AM MASS. LCS offers faith-based activities, songs and crafts with a child-friendly Scripture reflection. This helps them begin to understand Christ's message and prepare for attending Mass as they become older. Children may be dropped off at the Life Center before Mass and will stay with us until the end of Mass.

Starts this weekend!
Offered most Sundays.

For more information, contact Jan at lcs@sjnparish.org

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD (CLOW) — Offered for youth in 1st and 2nd grade (until First Communion) at BOTH the 9am and 10:30 Masses on the 2nd and 4th Sunday of the month (posters will be out in church on these weekends as a friendly reminder).

STARTS SUNDAY, OCT. 8TH AT THE 9:00 & 10:30 AM MASSES. CLOW offers a child-friendly sense of the readings and Gospel, making it a more relevant Liturgical experience for them and a way to introduce young ones to Mass! Children begin Mass in church with their parents. After the opening rite, the priest invites them to join together for a special Children's Liturgy of the Word (the readings, homily, Universal Prayer and Creed) in the Gathering Room. After this they rejoin their parents for Liturgy of the Eucharist and the remainder of Mass.

Starts in two weeks — offered on the 2nd & 4th Sundays.

For more information, contact Katie at Katie.keating59@gmail.com

Volunteers for LCS & CLOW are needed and welcomed! Guidance is provided. Assistance is also offered to obtain Safe Environment clearances which are needed to work with our youth.
