Ann was feeling depressed this Christmas. She just couldn't get into the spirit of the Season, it seemed that there wasn't enough time to get everything done. But it wasn't just all the preparations for Christmas. She knew she was an organized person, and that somehow she would make it all happen. But what was especially hard this year was trying to feel the real meaning of Christmas.

This was a time of joy and peace, but Ann felt sad. She went to the parish Advent Penance Service and shared her feelings as part of her confession. In particular she shared with the priest that she had been trying very hard to find Christ in her life but nothing was working. Ann also admitted that she felt her life was also cluttered with too many things, and that her priorities were out of wack. That she was getting lost in the wrong things.

After she finished speaking the priest said to her: "If a person is seeking God, much more is her Beloved seeking her." This is a quote from St. John of the Cross written back in the 16th Century. Let me share with you an image that might offer an explanation of what St. John was trying to say:

Picture a situation where a group of adventurous hikers end up stranded and starving. They decide that somebody has to get packed up and sent off into the unknown to search for food, taking what water is left, hacking through the undergrowth, hoping somehow to forge a path to something somewhere. But then comes the noise of a helicopter, and rescue approaching. That changes everything. The one thing needed now is some space, so that what is coming can come."

Then the priest concluded by saying: "For your Penance I'm going to ask you to take some time in prayer to thank God for the gifts he has given you, and to think about this: God is an approaching God, and your main job will be not so much to construct but to receive; the key word will be not so much 'achievement' as 'space'. Making space for God in order to receive."

I think these spiritual thoughts from St. John of the Cross (shared with the character in our story) offer us something important to consider as we come to Christmas 2023. God is seeking us much more than we are seeking the Lord.

God is an approaching God. But we often think that everything depends on what we are capable of achieving ourselves. So while we are "hacking away through the undergrowth" God is sending us a "helicopter" and all we have to do is clear the space so it can land. Sadly, we often get in the way of what it is that God is trying to do for us.

As we celebrate the Incarnation of Christ, remember all He is asking is that we make room for him, just as room was made for him in that lowly and humble stable on a cold winter's night in Bethlehem.

If you're feeling that there's too much clutter in your life and that you are losing a sense of who you are and what you're supposed to be about, take a break and actually do nothing, so that the approaching God can fill the empty "space" in your life. It's not about achievement, it's about receiving.

All students and your families! Save these dates and enjoy a special Mass at 10:30 am and Hospitality just for YOU. All students from any school are welcomed:

FORMED

THE CATHOLIC FAITH. ON DEMAND.

The True Meaning of Christmas

Christmas is coming and our friends Peter, Agnes, Paul and Anna expect to receive many gifts, but when they are caught in one of their antics, Lukas and Noah will help them understand the true story of Christmas and how the birth of the Son of God should change our hearts.

Christmas | Sacred Art

Join Dr. Ben Akers and Taylor Kemp as they look at the painting Adoration on the Shepherds by Gerard Van Honthorst to celebrate the Nativity of our Lord. This famous painting reveals the Christ Child as the light that has come into the world and also depicts the Blessed Mother, St. Joseph, and the shepherds to be models of adoration to our humble Lord who came as a helpless baby.

The 12 Days of Christmas

We are excited to announce our series of FORMED Now! Christmas and New Year special episodes. In these episodes, professors from the Augustine Institute Graduate School will lead us in reflections throughout the season.

Respect Life

One of the 5 organizations we will raise funds for is Adeodatus -ADROP

Augustinian Defenders of the Rights of the Poor

Founded in 2004 by Fr. Jack Deegan, O.S.A., by bringing leaders, service providers, and volunteers together to assess and respond to the needs of the poor in south Philadelphia. Since that time over 150 volunteers and leaders have affected the lives of over 1,000 families living in south Philly & beyond.

- ◆ Unity Clinic: a free, primary care health clinic serving those who do not have access to health insurance.
- ◆ Educational Enrichment: educational support programs funded by A.D.R.O.P. for Saint Anthony of Padua School, an inner city school Philadelphia.
- ◆ Criminal Justice Accompaniment & Reform Program: supports people incarcerated and returning citizens in a variety of ways, e.g.: Adeodatus Ministry: those who have recently left prison and those suffering from addictions can come together in a sense of community Thursday nights at St. Rita of Cascia rectory; Pen Pal Program enables correspondence between a person incarcerated and a person on the outside as a strong acknowledgment of the individual's human dignity; Family Support Groups: support to cope with a loved one in prison, on trial or about to be

The Advent and Christmas season is alive and well at SCJN School. Last week was SOOO busy! Our Kindergarten and First Grade students performed their sweet version of the first Christmas. Our Fourth Grade students travelled to Target to purchase gifts for their Advent Angels (local children in need of Christmas gifts). It was truly a hands-on service in action project for the students. We ended the week with our Santa Spectacular day. Students wore Christmas pajamas, shopped for family in the Santa Shops, wrapped their gifts in Santa's workshop, watched Christmas movies and even had a quick visit with Santa Claus!
