Consider this thought: "If it's a mistake to add the burden of the past to the weight of the present, it's a worse mistake to burden the present with the future."

I offer this thought because we just celebrated Holy Family Sunday, and many of you are parents, and parents have a tendency to worry—whether you have younger kids, or older kids who are married and on their own.

The truth of the matter is that things rarely happen as we expect them to happen. And that truth applies to the way your children's lives can unfold. Now, this is not necessarily a bad thing, but there are some situations where parents can start to blame themselves for decisions that their children have made that might seem to go against everything you taught them. And there is so much more out there in the world to create confusion and uncertainty.

Sometimes parents are not able to provide the best environment for their children because of problems that parents themselves have had to deal with, or perhaps the exact opposite is the case, where you gave them everything they could ever need or want and still your children chose a path that wasn't good for themselves.

Today is not a day where you are to evaluate your "performance" as a parent. And we are different people than we were many years ago. I would suggest that today is a day where you ask the new born Child in the manger to watch over your family. Today is a day to pray that there might be healing and forgiveness some day, it doesn't have to be this minute. Ask the Lord to protect your family in the days ahead. If there is any regret in your heart for the things of the past, those are also the things you place in the hands of Christ, and do your best to let go.

Let me leave you with another thought. I found this to be very helpful in my own life: "The things that have to be done must be done, and for the rest we must not allow ourselves to become overwhelmed with thousands of petty fears and worries, because the clinging to these things really say that we have no confidence in God. Everything will turn out all right.

So, what is our moral duty? To reclaim large areas of peace in ourselves—more and more peace, and to reflect it towards others. And the more peace there is in us, the more peace there will also be in our homes and in our troubled world."

This is a good thought, I think, as we begin the new year 2024—peace in our heart, peace in our homes, peace in our world.

Excerpted from: <https://aleteia.org/2020/01/01/8-ways-to-honor-the-holy-name-of-jesus-this-january/>

The Holy Name of Jesus — What the month of January means to Catholics and how to honor it in your home.

Did you know that in the Catholic Church, each month of the year has a devotional theme? January is the month of the Holy Name of Jesus, and it's an ideal time to strengthen our connection to the beautiful name of our Lord. In fact, all names are to be treated with respect. Do you know the meaning of your own name? It's interesting to discover. A name is an emblem of one's dignity but the name of Jesus in particular should be held in the highest regard; spoken and heard only in a sacred way.

The name "Jesus" means, "God saves." So the name of Jesus is not only the name of our Savior but also, by its meaning, states the purpose of His existence, reminding us of the incredible blessing of salvation. Let us therefore give that name great honor! Also, let us remember that Jesus's name in Aramaic is "Yeshua" So that is what Jesus was called in his own native language (the name Joshua is derived from this name, too).

Below are ways you can honor the Holy Name of Jesus this January.

◆ TAKE A STAND AGAINST TAKING THE LORD'S NAME IN VAIN.

Turn the channel, turn off the television, or walk out of the movie theater when you hear God's name taken in vain, which has become all too frequent. Vow never to take the Lord's name in vain (sounds like a perfect New Year's resolution!) and to make reparation immediately if you accidentally do or if you hear someone else do so.

◆ BOW YOUR HEAD WHEN YOU HEAR THE NAME OF JESUS.

Adopt the reverent practice (that used to be more widely practiced) of bowing your head whenever you say or hear the name of Jesus (just as we should bow or genuflect before the Real Presence in the tabernacle or make a sign of the cross as we pass a Catholic Church). Scripture tells us: "At the name of Jesus every knee should bend of those in heaven, on earth, and under the earth" (Phil 2:10). This devotion also helps to make amends for blasphemous use of the Holy Name.

◆ DECORATE YOUR TABLE.

Decorate in colors of white (first half of January is the liturgical season of Christmas, represented by liturgical color of white for purity) and green (second half of January begins ordinary time with the liturgical color green representing hope as a sprouting seed) and the letters IHS. IHS is a Christogram (combination of letters representing the Holy Name).

◆ WRITE HIS NAME ON YOUR HOUSE — LITERALLY!

As Mary's son is adored and worshiped by the three Magi, let us adore him, too. Literally write the name of Christ upon your house as you celebrate Epiphany! For the Feast of the Epiphany, it is beautiful to bless your home with "CMB" over your front door, which not only stands for Caspar, Melchior, and Balthasar, the traditional names of the three kings, but is also an abbreviation of "Christus mansionem benedicat" (may Christ bless the house).

◆ ASK FOR MARY AND JOSEPH'S INTERCESSION — DAILY.

The name of Jesus, which means Savior, was revealed to Joseph in a dream and to Our Lady at the Annunciation. Pray to Joseph and Mary to increase your love for their Son, along with your reverence for His Holy Name.

◆ ADD A SPECIAL PRAYER THIS MONTH.

Pray or begin a novena to St. Bernadine of Siena, who had a special devotion to the Holy Name of Jesus. Or pray one of the prayers to the Holy Name of Jesus found here. Or pray the Golden Arrow Prayer in reparation for blasphemies against His Most Holy Name.

◆ SING A PRAISE SONG.

Listen (and even sing along) to the Catholic hymn, such as "What a Beautiful Name Is This" by Hillsong Worship. Enjoy a song that gives the Holy Name praise and honor.
