FASTING

ALMSGIVING

Fasting & Abstinence During Lent

- ◆ ABSTINENCE: All persons 14 years of age and older are bound to abstain from eating meat on Ash Wednesday, all Fridays in Lent, and Good Friday.
- ◆ FASTING: All persons 18 years of age and older, up to and including their 59th birthday, are bound to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal, as well as two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal.
  - ◇ If possible, the fast on Good Friday is continued until the Easter Vigil (on Holy Saturday night) as the "paschal fast" to honor the suffering and death of the Lord Jesus and to prepare ourselves to share more fully and to celebrate more readily his Resurrection.

Other Acts of Penance

ALL FAITHFUL ARE ENCOURAGED:

- ◆ To participate at Mass and to receive the Holy Eucharist daily
- ◆ To celebrate frequently the Sacrament of Penance
- ◆ To undertake spiritual reading, especially the study of the Sacred Scripture, and

Each Lent, Catholic families across the country unite to put their faith into action through prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Through CRS Rice Bowl, families learn about how our sisters and brothers across the globe overcome hardships like hunger and malnutrition, and how through Lenten alms, we have the power to make the world a better place for all.

RICE BOWLS ARE LOCATED IN THE FRONT AND BACK OF THE CHURCH. TURN IN YOUR GIFTS AT THE END OF LENT, OR DONATE ONLINE AT crsricebowl.org/donate

An elderly priest making rounds in a prison came upon a despondent young man. "Leave me alone, Father. I'm no good, said the young man. "Everything I have touched has been ruined. I have led others into a life of crime. I have wounded the only ones who care for me—my mother, my wife and our young daughter. There's no hope for me."

The priest was silent for a moment before he spoke. "The hurt you have inflicted on others may never be healed. What you have done is most serious. What you need now is to find a new compass, a new way to walk. We must begin by teaching you some new stories."

"Stories!" The young man shouted. "I speak to you out of despair and you talk to me of stories? I live without hope and you speak to me of happy endings? If my life is to be spent behind bars, I may need new facts, but I certainly don't need stories."

The priest said, "Humor an old man. Listen to one tale."

Once a very bad man died and went before the judgement throne. Before him stood King David, St. Peter and St. Luke. A chilly silence hung heavy in the room as an unseen voice began to read the details of the man's life. There was nothing good that was recorded. When the voice concluded, King David spoke: You have committed evil crimes. You do not belong in the Kingdom of Light." The man faced the great king and cried, "Son of Jesse, it is true. I am a wicked man. Yet I dare ask you for forgiveness. You slept with Uriah's wife and later, to cover up your sin, arranged his death. I only ask forgiveness as you have known it."

St. Peter was the next to speak. "Unlike David, you have shown no love toward God. By your acid tongue and vile temper you have wounded the Son of God." "I should have learned to be more silent. I took the Lord's name in anger too often. Still, Simon, son of John, I plead for grace. Though you walked by his side and listened to his words from his own lips, you slept when he needed you in the garden, and you denied him three times."

Then St. Luke spoke, "You must leave. You have not been found worthy of the kingdom of God."

"My life has been recorded correctly and I am guilty as charged. Yet I know there is a place for me here. King David and St. Peter will plead my cause because they know of the weakness of man and the mercy of God. You, blessed physician, will open the gates to me because you have written of God's great love for the likes of me. Don't you recognize me? I am the lost sheep that the Good Shepherd carried home." And the gates opened and Luke embraced the sinner.

"You see", the priest concluded, "I want you to learn stories, not as an exercise in fiction, but in order to walk in mercy. Stories will help you find your way.

The Scripture scholar, William Barclay wrote that "lepers were people who were already dead, though still alive." The disease was bad enough, but the stigma that was attached to it was even worse. Although this disease has been eradicated, there are many people today who suffer from isolation and a sense of hopelessness.

Jesus gives the leper in the gospel new life. And that's what he wants to do for those who are in need of healing. Looking at our sins (and sins can be a type of leprosy) can sometimes make us feel that we will never be "good with God" ever again. We may think that we have burned too many bridges in our life. But it doesn't have to be that way. Just the simple prayer, "If you wish, you can make me clean" can be the start of a new life. Sin can also isolate us. That's why it's good to listen to the stories of those who have made mistakes just as we have.

Lent has begun. This year, use this time to focus on the stories of those who have perhaps fallen into the same traps as we have or maybe worse. See how Christ touched their life and allow him to do the same for you through the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

Our Spiritual Baby is a girl!
After the Saturday Vigil Mass, young Liam pulled "girl" from our basket.
This is our second girl and our seventh Spiritual Baby!

147 parishioners voted, and her name is: Felicity!

Her namesake saint, St. Felicity, was a pregnant Christian slave girl who was imprisoned with Saint Perpetua. Little is known about her because, unlike Perpetua, she did not keep a diary of her life. However, one eyewitness stated, "Felicity had feared that she might not be allowed to suffer with the rest, because pregnant women were not sent into the arena. However, she gave birth in the prison to a daughter whom one of their fellow Christians adopted." After imprisonment and torture, Felicity was also condemned to die at the games where, legend shares, that the wild beasts would not approach Perpetua and Felicity, so they were killed by the sword.

FORMED

THE CATHOLIC FAITH. ON DEMAND.

St. Peter

Watch the epic story of the spread of Christianity during the early years of the Church. This film follows the journey of St. Peter through his martyrdom on a cross.

The Afterlife | Eternal Rest | Episode 2

What happens after the moment of our death? Once the soul has been separated from the body, then what? What is heaven, hell, and purgatory? This session looks at the truth about what awaits the human person on the other side of death.

Week One | Restore: Lent with Sr. Miriam James Heidland, SOLT

In the Week One video for the Restore Lent series, Sr. Miriam James Heidland, SOLT, reflects on the theme of the week—the desert. She explains that Jesus is inviting you to move beyond your comfort zone and ginto the deepest places of your heart with him. It is Jesus who helps your root out the sin, sickness, and self-hatred in your life. Sr. Miriam assures us that we can look to him for comfort, love, and healing.

The Pilgrim's Prayer

O God,
Be for us our companion on the walk,
Our guide at the crossroads,
Our breath in our weariness,
Our protection in danger,
Our refuge on the Way,
Our shade in the heat,
Our light in the darkness,
Our consolation in our discouragements,
And our strength in our intentions.

So that with your guidance we may arrive safe and sound at the end of the road enriched with grace and virtue; May we return safely to our homes filled with joy. In the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Feb. 22: The Throne of Truth: What is the Feast of the Chair of St. Peter

The feast of the Chair of St. Peter has nothing to do with a piece of furniture. The “chair” symbolizes the authority of St. Peter and his successors who have served the Church of Jesus Christ as the Bishop of Rome (the Pope). As a matter of fact, in Rome’s St. Peter’s Basilica, there is a chair, enshrined in the sumptuous Altar of the Chair of St. Peter by the great architect Bernini, but it is a symbol representing the 2,000-year-old papacy and unity the Pope continues to bring to Catholics around the world. Without such unity the Church would splinter into numerous sects and divisions.

Welcome to Mrs. Rozran's Real Life Math Restaurant. Middle school students came to Math class last week to find their classroom transformed into a Mexican restaurant. In addition to music and decorations, students were treated to Mexican treats while practicing their newly learned Math skills. Students were given three tasks to complete; that included determining tipping, tax and discounts. It was a fun way to bring Math class to life!
