RICE BOWLS

Thank you for your generous support!

Please be kind enough to write a check for your family's Lenten sacrifices, mark it Rice Bowl, and drop it in the Collection basket.

Currently in New York there's a show in revival called Merrily We Roll Along. It's a musical by Stephen Sondheim and tells the story of how three friends' lives and friendship change over the course of 20 years. A unique feature of the play is that it moves in reverse chronology, beginning in 1976 at the friends' lowest moment and ending in 1957, at their youthful best.

As the story unfolds, backwards, there are moments of transition, where we hear these lyrics sung by the chorus:

How did you get to be here?
What was the moment?
How did you get so far off the track?
Why don't you turn around and go back.
Where did you let things slip out of gear?
How did you ever get to be here?
Do you ever find yourself asking questions like this? Every once in a while, it helps to step back and look at the big picture. (How did I get to be here?)

Well, from a faith perspective, that's what we do the night of the Easter Vigil: From Genesis through to Exodus and Isaiah, Saint Paul's letter to the Romans and then Mark's Gospel account of the Resurrection. We see the big picture of how God's love for his people manifested itself from Creation to Christ's death and Resurrection. And how did we become involved in all of this? Well, that happened through Baptism where we died with Christ and rose with Him. That's why we renew our Baptismal promises as well.

If the question on your mind is: How did I let things slip out of gear? You are reminded through this Easter moment that we are able to get back on track. Easter is always about new beginnings. Where we think we have run into a brick wall, we can see how that obstacle can be removed and we can find a way to move forward.

In Mark's account of the Resurrection there's a very human moment described for us.

Here's Mary Magdalene and the other women going to the tomb with their spices to anoint Jesus' body. As they were going, they were trying to figure out how to deal with a problem: "Who will roll back the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?" When they got there they found that the problem had already been taken care of...a greater power had already moved it away.

See that rock not just as an ordinary rock blocking the entrance to the tomb, but as an analogy for the obstacles of life. Sometimes the rocks are put there by others and sometimes we put them there ourselves. And we wonder how we can ever move them, is about finding the "rock" already moved, and your sad prediction for your future turned to one of hope, trust and perseverance. Easter reminds us that there is a way out—better yet, a way forward.

There's another good lyric from Merrily We Roll Along: Every road has a turning, that's the way we keep learning...

Obstacles in the way, unexpected turns on the road...paths can be cleared, crooked ways made straight through Christ who went to the Cross for your sins, suffered, died and then rose from the dead. His death means that we can spend eternity with him in heaven.

What was the moment? For persons of faith the moment is now, this Easter 2024. Let Jesus Christ clear away the rocks, put you back in the right gear. We are joyful for as we look at the big picture, we see how much we are loved and we know that we are saved. Happy Easter to you all!

God's love—Divine Mercy
God's forgiveness—Divine Mercy
God's healing—Divine Mercy

At the Mass for the Canonization of Saint Faustina Kowalska, on the Second Sunday of Easter, 2000, Pope John Paul II declared the Sunday after Easter be called "Divine Mercy Sunday."

St. Faustina was a Polish nun who received visions from Jesus, including one of Jesus wearing a white garment with beams of red and white coming from his heart, which came to be known as the image of Divine Mercy. She wrote in her diary that Jesus said:

I want the Image to be solemnly blessed on the first Sunday after Easter, and I want it to be venerated publicly so that every soul may know about it...

My daughter, tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy.

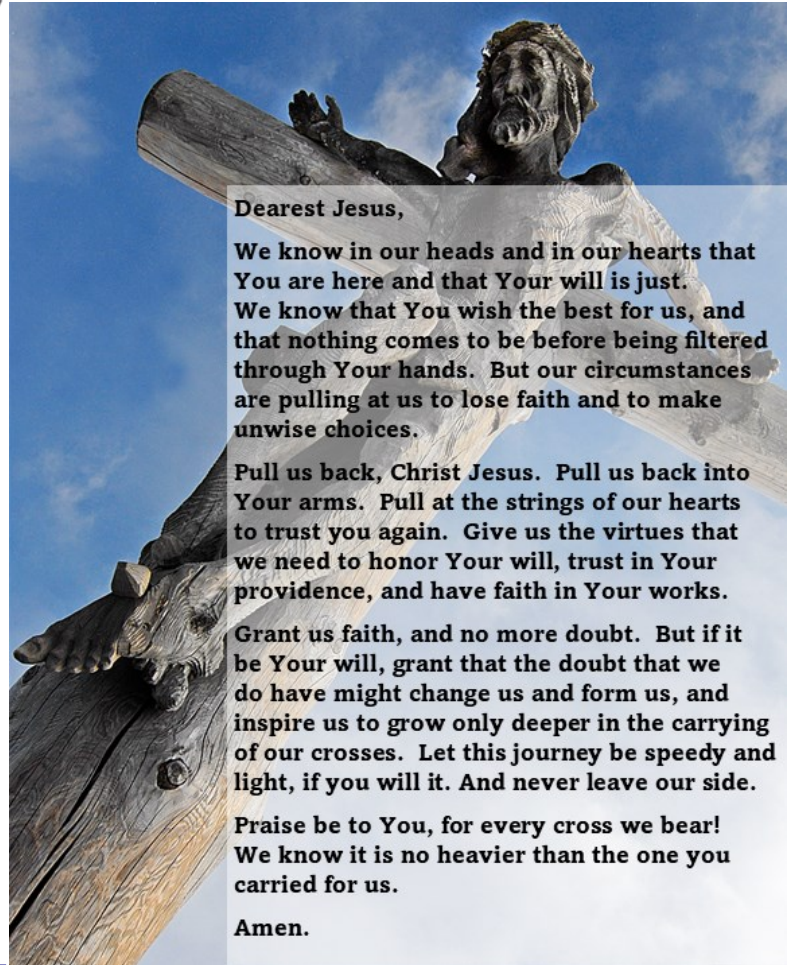

Divine Mercy Sunday focuses on the gift of mercy and love given through Christ's death, burial, and resurrection. As Pope John Paul II stated, "Divine Mercy reaches human beings through the heart of Christ crucified."

Dearest Jesus,

We know in our heads and in our hearts that You are here and that Your will is just. We know that You wish the best for us, and that nothing comes to be before being filtered through Your hands. But our circumstances are pulling at us to lose faith and to make unwise choices.

Pull us back, Christ Jesus. Pull us back into Your arms. Pull at the strings of our hearts to trust you again. Give us the virtues that we need to honor Your will, trust in Your providence, and have faith in Your works.

Grant us faith, and no more doubt. But if it be Your will, grant that the doubt that we do have might change us and form us, and inspire us to grow only deeper in the carrying of our crosses. Let this journey be speedy and light, if you will it. And never leave our side.

Praise be to You, for every cross we bear! We know it is no heavier than the one you carried for us.

Amen.

THE CATHOLIC FAITH. ON DEMAND.

The Rosary: A Special Way to Pray

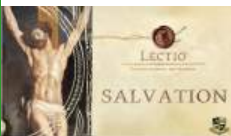

Join Brother Francis in this entertaining and guidance-filled presentation that will inspire children to deepen their faith by praying the Rosary!

Why Catholics believe in "life everlasting"

The Catholic Church cares about every BODY. Think of relics and funerals — reverence for our bodies and the bodies of holy people is part of being Catholic. But why? We find the answer at the end of the Creed: "I believe in the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting." That's a pretty strong statement and it's founded on Jesus. Because Jesus rose from the dead, we can look forward to our own body's being raised at the end of time.

Not Just a Legal Transaction | Lectio: Salvation | Episode 5

After the Fall, each person is born not only with the stain of sin on their soul but also with a fallen human nature. Thanks be to God that his gift of salvation not only frees us from Original Sin but also transforms us from the inside out, healing the root of our brokenness: our hearts. As we will see in this session, salvation is not simply a legal transaction by which we are declared righteous, but by the gift of God's Spirit we are actually made righteous.

SJN Adult Group Presents

What Family Caregivers Need to Know about Dementia and Alzheimer's

Thursday, April 18,
3:30 - 4:30 PM

Parish Life Center
All are welcome.

An estimated 6.7 MM Americans over age 65 are living with Alzheimer's dementia. About 1 in 9 people over age 65 have Alzheimer's dementia. Two-thirds of Americans over age 65 with Alzheimer's dementia are women. In 2022, more than 11 MM caregivers of people with Alzheimer's disease or other dementias provided an estimated 18 billion hours of unpaid care.

Brie Yousaltis, Director of Psychosocial Support for Abramson Senior Care, will explain the types and stages of dementia and Alzheimer's disease and what family caregivers should know to provide cognitively impaired loved ones with a safe, compassionate environment. Brie will also stress the importance of caregivers taking time for themselves to deal with the stress of caring for a loved one.

Brie has more than 15 years' experience as a geriatric Medical Social Worker and has worked in palliative and hospice care.

April 8: The Annunciation of the Lord

The Solemnity of the Annunciation is celebrated nine months before the Nativity of the Lord. The Annunciation recalls the day when the Archangel Gabriel appeared to Mary and revealed God's will that she become the Mother of the Son of God, and she accepted. At that moment, the "Word became Flesh and dwelt among us." (John 1:14)

The Feast of the Annunciation is celebrated on March 25 each year. In 2024, because it would otherwise fall during Holy Week, the Annunciation will be observed on Monday, April 8.
