PLEASE PRAY FOR OUR DECEASED

*Joseph Hallinan
Rocco Molinari
Letitia Ward*

May their souls, and all the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Bill had a son who fell away from the church a number of years ago. This had been a real hardship for him because he and his wife had blamed themselves for what had happened. Recently, friends of Bill's, a married couple, were talking with him, and shared their sadness at the fact that their two children had stopped going to church. They were also blaming themselves. Bill said to them, "I know exactly what you are going through. It's hard not to blame yourself. I kept thinking about what I would do differently had I been given the chance. But here's what really helped me. One Sunday I heard a homily that made me look at my situation differently. The priest was trying to emphasize that we have to learn to place our concerns in God's hands and not think that it's all about what we are going to do. This changed my way of thinking, and now I don't pray, 'Lord, help me figure out what I did wrong' anymore. Now I pray, 'Lord, you love my son more than I do. I know you want my son to be saved even more than I do, so I expect you to do something about it. I'm going to rely on you to bring him back, and I believe I can rely on you.' And through the grace of God, I feel much more at peace with the situation. I don't preach to my son about going back to church anymore, although he knows how I feel. So, I would encourage both of you to pray in a similar way. You see, I had to learn to take the emphasis off of myself. I was making it all about my feelings of guilt. I had to come to the realization that I didn't have the power to change things. This is up to Christ. So, I am still praying for my son's return to the faith, and I am confident that God will make it happen."

Jesus says: "This is how it is with the Kingdom of God; it is as if a man were to scatter seed on the land and would sleep and rise night and day and through it all the seed would sprout and grow, he knows not how." Bill, in the story, had to realize that his job was to plant the seed, and that it was up to God to provide the fruit. All of us can name family members and close friends who have fallen away from the faith. So maybe "Bill's prayer" will help you too. But remember this: Don't tell God when to bring about the conversion, or how to bring about the conversion. Instead, ask God to give his grace to whomever he wants, in whatever way he wants! Say instead: Dear Lord, don't let all your terrible suffering and death go to waste. You did this to save us. I ask you, and I even expect you, our merciful God, to bring about the salvation of your people.

When you pray like this, God will give you the grace to trust him and rely on him to make things happen. Such bold sentiment expresses the deep confidence we should all have in God's loving care for our fallen away family members and friends. You have no need to be anxious—even in the worst situations, because you have the all-powerful God working to bring about what you want—the return of the "Prodigal Son".

Why do we call priest "father"?

Catholics are unique because our dads aren't the only men we call father. We also address each of our priests in the same way.

The Church has used this title for clergy since its earliest days. In the beginning, the title "Father" was reserved for the pope, but it eventually widened in use until all bishops and priests were also addressed in the same way.

While our priests are not our biological fathers, they are our spiritual fathers. Just as a father leads his family and protects them from harm, so do our priests guide and defend us, the people God has entrusted to their care. They also provide us with the spiritual nourishment we need to grow in holiness and ultimately reach Heaven: in particular, the nourishment of the Eucharist and the healing power of Confession.

A virtuous father takes responsibility for himself, as well as for the welfare of his wife and children. Likewise, a good priest cares for his spiritual family and holds himself accountable for their spiritual well being. While we see them most frequently saying Mass, they also hear confessions, provide spiritual direction, visit and anoint the sick, help couples prepare for marriage, baptize, and much more.

During their daily prayer and Liturgy of the Hours, they are praying and interceding for us and our intentions, placing our needs and petitions at the feet of the Father, God.

Priests are called to sacrifice so much in order to serve us. A man whom God calls to the Roman Catholic priesthood gives up having his own earthly marriage and physical family in order to be fully and wholehearted available to whomever God places on his path. Priests dedicate every day of their lives to serving their flocks sacramentally and practically, and sacrifice biological fatherhood in order to live out God's gift of spiritual fatherhood. We call priests "father" because of their spiritual leadership in that great family which makes up the Body of Christ.

June 29: Saints Peter and Paul, Apostles

Peter and Paul are giants of the Church. Both are apostles. Peter was very likely a middle-aged man when Jesus called him. He was a fisherman from Bethsaida, a village near the Lake of Galilee. Perhaps he was part of a fisherman's co-op with his brother Andrew and friends James and John. At any rate, Andrew introduced Peter to Jesus. Jesus said, "You are Simon son of John; you are to be called Cephas, meaning Rock."

During the three years the apostles lived with Jesus, Peter showed definite signs of leadership. He was often the spokesman for the group. When Jesus asked, "Who do you say I am?" Peter replied, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." It was Peter who objected to Jesus stating that he was on his way to Jerusalem to suffer and die. Peter is mentioned 195 times in the New Testament. He appears lovable, impetuous, practical, and sometimes weak under pressure. Jesus loved him dearly, even after Peter denied knowing him during the passion

Peter became the leader in the early Church. According to the Acts of the Apostles, he was the first to preach on Pentecost. He arranged for the selection of Matthias to replace Judas. He worked the first public miracle: curing the lame man at the temple gate. He welcomed the first person who was not Jewish into the Church. People thought just his shadow passing by would cure them.

Peter was imprisoned three or four times. Finally, in Rome, he was sentenced to death by crucifixion. Out of respect for his Master, Jesus, he asked the guard to fasten him to the cross upside down. He was buried in an old Roman cemetery, probably where the basilica of St. Peter is today. He is called the "Prince of the Apostles." Two letters in the Bible are said to be his.

Paul received the best education. Being a strict Jew, he persecuted the Christians who were teaching strange new things. One day on the way to Damascus to hunt for Christians, Paul met Jesus. Paul became the greatest Christian missionary, preaching and founding churches. In the beginning Paul had difficulty convincing the Jewish Christians that non-Jews could be baptized and did not have to follow Jewish rules. He finally won.

For about thirty years Paul traveled around the Roman Empire preaching about Christ and suffering. From his many letters that are in the Bible and from the Acts of the Apostles, he seems to have been affectionate, loyal, courageous, and dedicated. He was the right man to build the bridge between Jewish religion of the Old Testament and the Christianity of the New Testament. Paul was imprisoned and finally beheaded outside of the walls of Rome.

SONG OF VICTORY

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, his mercy endures forever.

In danger I called on the LORD; the LORD answered me and set me free.

The LORD is with me; I am not afraid; what can mortals do against me?

The LORD is with me as my helper; I shall look in triumph on my foes.

Better to take refuge in the LORD than to put one's trust in mortals.

I was hard pressed and falling, but the LORD came to my help.

The LORD, my strength and might, has become my savior.
