Two men are having lunch together. One is Catholic and the other Jewish. They worked together for a number of years now and got along pretty well. They considered themselves friends and got together socially from time to time.

On this particular day the conversation came around to religion and Keith, the Catholic guy, asked, "Why don't Jewish people believe in Jesus?" Nathan replied that Jewish people did not believe that the Messiah would be hung on a cross. For them, the Messiah would come in great glory. They saw Jesus as a prophet, but not the Messiah. Then Nathan said, "We believe that God actually chose us—we are God's people and the Lord will know the right time and place to send the Messiah."

I think there is something to be said for that kind of perspective—realizing that the Lord is the one who chooses. What's that other phrase from Scripture, "It was not you who chose me but I who chose you". And St. Paul says this to us today: "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ; he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, to be holy and blameless in his sight."

You are chosen—you are a chosen person. God chose you. That's what it says in Scripture:

"God chose us in Christ". This means that the infinite God loved you into existence. Think about that! You are not here on this earth as a mere whim. You were meant to be here.

What is the reason God has chosen you? Well, first of all, so that you can never forget that you are important to God, and second, that you do his will in your life, and third, that you draw others to Him.

Most of the people in our world think little of God. Most do not pray at all. But, in some cases, when a person hits bottom, she/he is open to believing in God, even if it's through a weak faith at first.

So, God wants us to depend upon Him in the ups and downs of life. And we can never forget: without Christ there is no salvation. We cannot be saved unless we learn to believe and trust in God. And God will give you the grace to trust Him. What we are asked to do in faith is to give God our life.

That's what the disciples had to learn as they were forced out of their comfort zones and were transformed by God's grace. They eventually found their completeness in Christ. Because of our Baptism we are asked to come to the same realizations.

So give God your life. Entrust Him with it. And you will see why he chose you.

Jesus the Bridegroom

Brant Pitre once again taps into the wells of Jewish Scripture and tradition, and unlocks the secrets of what is arguably the most well-known symbol of the Christian faith: the cross of Christ. In this thrilling exploration, Pitre shows how the suffering and death of Jesus was far more than a tragic Roman execution. Instead, the Passion of Christ was the fulfillment of ancient Jewish prophecies of a wedding, when the God of the universe would wed himself to humankind in an everlasting nuptial covenant.

MEET NEWMAN MINISTRY! www.newmanministry.com

WE CONNECT STUDENTS SO THEIR FAITH THRIVES IN COLLEGE AND BEYOND.

Their longest running program, Newman Connection, connects high school graduates to Catholic campus ministries and is endorsed by over 100 dioceses across our country every year.

Most new college students want to find a place to belong. They want to be part of a community of people making a difference. The problem is, many students struggle to find great friends that share their faith. It can be overwhelming to walk onto a new campus with no friends. There's so many opportunities and decisions to make. Faith usually isn't at the top of their list. Newman Ministry connects students with a Catholic community on campus, so their faith thrives in college and beyond.

July 25: St. James, Apostle

Nothing is known of St. James the Greater's early life, though it has been established that he is the son of Zebedee and Salome and brother of John the disciple.

The title "the Greater" was added to St. James' name to help distinguish him from the Apostle James "the Less," who is believed to have been shorter than James "the Greater."

Saint James the Greater was one of Jesus' first disciples. James was fishing with his father and John the Apostle when Jesus came to the shores of the Sea of Galilee and called for the fisherman, who were unable to catch any fish that day, to dip their nets in the water once again.

When the fishermen followed Jesus' instructions, they found their nets full, and after emptying the fish on board, the boats nearly sank from their weight.

Later, James was one of only three called by Jesus to witness his Transfiguration, and when he and his brother wanted to call fire upon a Samaritan town, both were rebuked by Jesus.

Following Christ's Ascension, James spread the Gospel across Israel and the Roman kingdom as well. He traveled and spread the Word for nearly forty years in Spain.

It is said that one day, as he prayed, The Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to him and asked him to build her a church,

Later, James returned to Jerusalem but was martyred for his faith by King Herod, who decapitated him. Saint James the Greater is known as the first apostle to die.

As he was not allowed to be buried following his martyrdom, his remains were taken to Compostela, Spain, by some of his followers, who buried him.

In the ninth century his remains were discovered and moved to a tomb in Santiago de Compostela. Today, his remains can still be found in the Cathedral of Santiago.

Because Santiago de Compostela is the most frequently visited place pilgrims migrate to following Rome and Jerusalem, Pope Leo declared it a shrine.
