For a Special Intention
from Maura Wynne

Frank had a problem, and it was something that he'd been dealing with all his life. What was this problem? Frank would always fall into the wrong way of thinking—the wrong way of looking at a situation; getting lost in himself and allowing fear and frustration to overwhelm him. It affected his relationship with his family, the people he worked with, and those he thought were his friends. Actually, Frank didn't have many friends, because he would eventually end up in some kind of disagreement with them which would lead to arguing, and then severed ties.

Basically, Frank was a very insecure person. Perhaps he was made to feel that he wasn't measuring up or that he wouldn't amount to anything.

The other thing was that Frank took himself way too seriously. This made him thin-skinned and difficult to talk to. He rarely listened to another's advice. To sum it all up, sadly, Frank was his own worst enemy. It's as if he created his own prison and has never been able to find a way to break out!

I found this helpful quote which I'd like to share with you: "Our real prison is ourselves: our limited perception of reality, our narrow-mindedness and narrow-heartedness. Experience often shows that we break out of this prison and open new horizons by accepting situations we haven't chosen, and so come to perceive a deeper dimension of reality, more rich and beautiful."

Most of us realize that life sometimes leads us down paths we haven't chosen but which we must consent to out of love. But this consent becomes a source of grace. And that is why it is especially important to make sure that we have our sights set on Christ and pray every day so that we can more readily understand the voice of Jesus in our life.

The cross can really help us to do that! The cross forces us to make a decision. In the face of the cross do we go with Christ or run away. Do we get lost in ourselves or trust enough to go the path that has less guarantees but is moving in the right direction as far as Christ is concerned? Do we believe in the Promises made to us or would we rather rely on our own powers of reasoning?

Christ says to Peter, "Get behind me Satan. You are thinking not as God does, but as humans do." When the temptation comes to us to give in to the wrong way of thinking, we need to say the same thing: "Get behind me, Satan. I'm not going to listen to your words that bring me anxiety and turmoil. I know that those feelings are not of God. I will turn my attention on trying to do what is pleasing to God, even though it might involve a risk".

So, take up the cross—make that decision to go with Christ even though it may seem a little scary. The cross will help you break free of the prison (of your own making). Remember, God is always bringing us newness. This is most especially found in the message of his Son, Jesus Christ, who went to the cross, so that we might be freed from our bad way of thinking.

Healing Mass — Saturday, Oct. 19th @ 5:15

If you or a loved one may benefit from receiving the sacrament of the anointing of the sick, join us for this beautiful Mass.

PLEASE REGISTER IN ADVANCE:

Contact Clare at the Rectory:
610-525-3100 or email:
healing@sjnparish.org

In the essential rite of the sacrament, the priest lays his hands on the sick person's head. Then he anoints the person on the forehead and palms of the hands with the oil of the sick, a holy oil that has been blessed by the bishop.

One does not need to be in a critical state of health to receive this sacrament.

Love Is Alive

People of God, see the morning is new;
Rise from your sleeping and run
to the tomb. Come and see!

Your chains have been broken;
a promise fulfilled.

Here now is mercy embracing

He is here! He is alive! Tell the world!

Love is alive; conquered the grave and defeated the night.
Alleluia! Love is alive!

The Son has arisen for all.

The SJN Adult Group Presents: Yuppies to Yuppies in One Generation

Tom McGrath — Award winning journalist and author.

Wednesday, Sept. 25. 4:00 – 5:30 PM, Life Center

In Triumph of the Yuppies: America, the Eighties, and the Creation of an Unequal Nation, Tom McGrath details how a cadre of college-educated Baby Boomers played a vital role in creating the 1980s Yuppie phenomenon. McGrath charts Boomers' transformation from hippy idealists in the late 1960s to careerists in the early 1980s. He looks at how Yuppies' preoccupation with money, work, and the latest status symbols largely invented the world we live in today. Brimming with lively and nostalgic details (think Jane Fonda, The Sharper Image, and laughable tidbits of Yuppie culture), Triumph of the Yuppies is a portrait of America just as it was beginning to come apart.
