OCTOBER IS RESPECT LIFE MONTH!

Each October the Church in the U.S. celebrates Respect Life Month. As Catholics, we are called to cherish, defend, and protect those who are most vulnerable, from the beginning of life to its end, and at every point in between. The Church asks us to reflect more deeply on the dignity and gift of every human life.

WOMEN'S HEALTH & ABORTION:

This one-page resource from the USCCB (United States Conference of Catholic Bishops) dispels many myths that claim restrictions on abortion will limit women's access to life-saving care. We encourage you to read it thoughtfully & prayerfully.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY-OCTOBER 20TH

GO AND INVITE EVERYONE TO THE BANQUET

Pope Francis has chosen the theme "Go and invite everyone to the banquet," inspired by the parable of the wedding banquet in Matthew 22:9. This theme emphasizes two core aspects:

GOING OUT: Mission work involves going out into the world, reaching out to those who have not heard the Gospel, and inviting them to experience God's love. It's a call to be active and engaged in spreading the faith.

INVITING EVERYONE: The invitation is universal, reflecting God's love for all. It calls on us to welcome everyone to the feast of the Eucharist and the ultimate banquet in the Kingdom of God.

Thank you for your generous support!

OCTOBER 6TH ~

Connor Thomas Couley

PARENTS: MATTHEW AND MARIA

John Fortunato Powers

PARENTS: ROBERT AND REGINA

David became involved in a faith-sharing group with other men in his parish about a year ago. It had been the best thing for him since his divorce. At these meetings he began to open up about his life more than he had ever done before. As he became more comfortable with the group, he started talking about how difficult discussions had been with his ex-wife over finances, custody arrangements and schooling for their children.

But at these faith-sharing meetings he was also starting to learn a great deal about forgiveness. That made him think, do I have to forgive my wife? And gradually he began to realize that the break-up of the marriage was not all his wife's fault—that, as he looked back, he began to see that he had done plenty of things to hurt her too.

David also started to realize (through prayer and really being honest with himself) that he had been self-centered and had not taken seriously his responsibilities to be a husband and father. He had been ok with the idea of accommodation but never really understood sacrifice.

The next time that David met with his ex-wife he actually told her he was sorry for the sins that he now realized he had committed. This completely shocked her, and he was shocked that she was shocked. She invited him to dinner for a “peaceful” conversation. He was curious and accepted.

At the dinner David noticed that Meg was listening to him and being patient with him. This was something that hadn't happened for a very long time. And as he connected the dots, he saw this as the fruits of his repentance. So he shared with her all that he was learning about himself and his relationship with God. He said he saw how much the divorce was devastating their kids, and he regretted it. Meg said that she felt the same way.

After six months of further communications, they actually fell in love again and decided to get remarried. This is a true story. Although I will readily admit that it doesn't happen too often!

Healing and forgiveness/anger and resentment—opposite ends of the spectrum. In our life experiences, when we feed anger and resentment, we can place ourselves on a path that can lead one to becoming a cynical person—closed to the idea of forgiving or allowing ourselves to be forgiven.

Jesus' teaching on marriage is a difficult one. And for those who are in a situation where things might be falling apart, this message can seem even more difficult. I think it's important to remember Jesus' teaching on love as a first step. We need to step away from the notion of “movie star” love. For Christ, love is rooted in doing what is best for the other person, of being willing to sacrifice rather than just accommodate.

I will also acknowledge that there are some situations where issues exist with one or both persons in a marriage that make it impossible for the commitment (or the promise) to be lived out.

Nevertheless, here's something to think about, and it focuses on relationships in general—how we interact with our spouses, children, close friends, etc:

When we foster resentment toward someone, we can't stop thinking about that other person. We are filled with negative feelings that absorb a large part of our energy. When someone has made us suffer, our tendency is to keep the memory of the wrong alive in our minds, like a “bill” we will produce to demand payment. Those accumulated bills end up poisoning our lives. The gospel invites us to ask God for the grace to try our best to cancel every debt. In return, we will be forgiven everything, and our hearts will be set free, whereas fueling resentment closes us to the positive things others can contribute to us.

Final thought:

I came across a definition of the word Virtue which I found very insightful. In closing let me share it with you: When God measures a person, He puts the tape around the heart instead of the head.

lives were intertwined for decades...

On February 22, 1965, the toboggan in which Bill Atkinson was riding hit a tree, leaving him almost completely paralyzed from the neck down. Steve served as an aide to Father Bill for more than two decades. In his book, “Green Bananas: The Wisdom of Father Bill Atkinson,” Steve chronicles Father Bill's incredible life story.

On Feb. 2, 1974, Father Bill became the first quadriplegic priest to be ordained. Today, 18 years after his death in 2006, Fr. Bill is one step closer in the cause for canonization. Steve has given personal testimony to the tribunal created to investigate Fr. Bill's eligibility for consideration for canonization.

Persecution and Defense | The Early Christians | Episode 3

Christians are attacked by the imperial authorities, by the public opinion through slander, and by pagan intellectuals. How did they react? Not with violence, but by conquering minds and hearts. This was achieved mainly by the shining figures of the Apostolic Fathers, building stones of the Christian tradition. Special focus on the danger of Gnosticism, and the Apocryphal writings. Who were the Apologist Fathers? How as their dialogue with the pagan culture?

Litany of Trust

From the belief that I have to earn Your love ... Deliver me, Jesus.
From the fear that I am unlovable ...
From the false security that I have what it takes ...
From the fear that trusting You will leave me more destitute ...
From all suspicion of Your words and promises ...
From the rebellion against childlike dependency on You ...
From refusals and reluctances in accepting Your will ...
From anxiety about the future ...
From resentment or excessive preoccupation with the past ...
From restless self-seeking in the present moment ...
From disbelief in Your love and presence ...
From the fear of being asked to give more than I have ...
From the belief that my life has no meaning or worth ...
From the fear of what love demands ...
From discouragement ...

That You are continually holding me, sustaining me, loving me ... Jesus, I trust in you.

That Your love goes deeper than my sins and failings, and transforms me ...

That not knowing what tomorrow brings is an invitation to lean on You ...

That You are with me in my suffering ...

That my suffering, united to Your own, will bear fruit in this life and the next ...

That You will not leave me orphan, that You are present in Your Church...

That Your plan is better than anything else ...

That You always hear me, and in Your goodness always respond to me ...

That You give me the grace to accept forgiveness and to forgive others ...

That You give me all the strength I need for what is asked ...

That my life is a gift ...

That You will teach me to trust You ...

That You are my Lord and my God ...

That I am Your beloved one ...

Amen.
