Sanctuary Flowers

Flowers presented at the Blessed Mother Statue in Honor of All Mothers from Patrick Thorpe

Lou was aggravated. It was only the second week of January, and he had already seen all of his New Year's resolutions go out the window.

Now, he had to admit that it was a pretty grand plan, but he figured that it was up to him to get his life in order.

He had planned to exercise every day, go on a huge diet; he was going to try and get to bed at a decent time each night; stop procrastinating with assignments at work and chores at home; he was going to spend more time with his family, and stop wasting hours surfing the Internet or hanging on the phone. He was also going to try and be more patient with others, especially those closest to him.

Well, as I said, most of this never happened. And before long Lou was back into all the bad habits. Lou was starting to think he was beyond hope! Maybe he was too set in his ways and not disciplined enough to get his act together.

I think there are many of us who feel like our friend Lou. We have great intentions, but we somehow can't get our act together, or if we do, it doesn't last for long. Why is that? Well, I don't think that there's just one explanation. But one thing I do see as getting us back on the right track is to begin with Mary's very sage advice given at the wedding feast of Cana: Do whatever he tells you.

I think it's interesting that these are the last recorded words of Mary in the New Testament. It's almost as if she's giving parting advice not just to the waiters at the wedding but to all of us. And what good advice it is! And all of us, especially if we're like Lou in the story, are thinking "it's harder than it sounds".

I think there's truth in this if we insist on going through life only counting on our own resources. As if to say that we are the ones who determine what is happening in our life---that we have total control, God's not really in the picture.

But if we stop right there and begin to change our attitude about who we are, and what our relationship is with Christ, we can start moving in the right direction. But that means we will have to be open to the rhythm of grace in our life.

What do I mean by that? To be open to the promptings of Christ in our life. Here's a great quote I came across recently: "The devil slips into time we live badly because we are refusing something or grasping too eagerly at something else."

There is great wisdom in these words. It means that our most noble intentions could not be what God wants for us or what we need to get closer to Him. What we have to pray for is grace to live life in more "self-abandonment", where our strong desire is to do what is pleasing to God. It's as if we say to the Lord, "You've given me so much---you have been so good to me---let me try and do something for you. Let me do what is pleasing to you rather than just what's pleasing to me.

So, when we are ready for the next set of resolutions, or when we are putting together our plan for self-improvement, let Mary's words---her parting advice---echo in our ears and give us pause: Do whatever he tells you. The more we do what is pleasing to God the more we will feel better about ourselves, and the more we will be open to real transformation in our lives.

A BIBLICAL WALK THROUGH THE MASS

We may go to Mass with good intent, but
our minds may wander.
We can lose focus.
Some of the rituals may have become routine

motions and words rather than gestures reflecting their original purpose and their richly expressive worship of God.

Everything we say and do in the Liturgy is steeped in biblical language. A Biblical Walk Through the Mass explores the extraordinary biblical roots of the Liturgy and reveals what it all means and why it all matters. This fascinating tour of the Mass will renew your faith and deepen your love for and devotion to the Holy Eucharist.

Join Msgr. Matz as we explore the beauty of the Mass. Dr. Edward Sri will guide us through contemporary videos with down-to-earth explanations. Msgr. Matz will lead us in discussion after each video.

To join, email: catholic@sjnparish.org (materials need to be ordered)

RENOVATION UPDATE!

The planning for our Celebrating Our Faith, Embracing Our Future campaign began over three years ago. Since that time parish and school leadership have identified the improvements needed for each facility, gathered feedback from the community and worked with several architects and designers to realize their vision. We are excited to share more information about each project and how they will benefit our community in the coming weeks.

We want to thank the Steering Committee members, led by Msgr. Matz, who have dedicated their time and talent over the past three years. Thank you Kelly Ciminera, Ward Fitzgerald, Clare Frissora, Wendy Hess, Pierce Keating, John Knott, Bob Lee, Maggie Oliver, Paul Selvaggi, Joe Swift and David West.

PRAYER TO SAINT LUKE

Most wonderful St. Luke you are animated by the Heavenly Spirit of Love. In faithfully detailing the humanity of Jesus, you also showed His Divinity and His genuine compassion for all human beings.

May St. Luke intercede for us that we may deepen our understanding of the gospel and grow in compassion of Jesus.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever.

Amen.

FORMED

THE CATHOLIC FAITH. ON DEMAND.

Don Bosco is the inspiring true story of a brave and holy priest. Blessed with tremendous gifts, a creative imagination, and a great sense of humor, Bosco had a winning way with youth and was a brilliant educator.
