A very devout and holy woman is trying to pray, but she isn't feeling very much comfort. She's been struggling with temptations lately, and has been wondering where God is in all this. In her frustration she actually calls out: "Lord, where were you when my heart was being tormented by so many temptations?" And the Lord replies: "I was in your heart". And the woman says: "How can I believe that you were living in my heart, when it was full of unclean and selfish thoughts?" And the Lord answers: "Those thoughts and temptations: did they gladden your heart, or sadden it? Did they bring you pleasure, or displeasure?" And the woman replies: "Great pain and great displeasure." And the Lord answers: "Who was it who made you feel displeasure, if not I who was hiding in the center of your heart?" The devout woman in this story is St. Catherine of Siena who lived in medieval times.

What's the purpose of my story? Well, the reason why I tell you this story is to let you know that even those who are called saints—who are known to be holy—struggled with sin and temptation. I don't know about you, but knowing that gives me great comfort!

Also, it's very important to know that when we think God is far away from us, he's actually closer than ever, even if we conclude that we don't deserve this proximity. And how did God let St. Catherine know that despite her feelings of temptation and unworthiness, she was still moving in the right direction? By reminding Catherine that her feelings of "displeasure and pain" were from God, himself! God was letting her know that even though she was struggling, she was still connected to God and that He had no intention of "cutting the tie with her". God was doing to use that struggle to transform her. And so it is with us!

I love this verse from St Paul: "For I am the least of the apostles, not fit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace to me has not been ineffective. But Paul didn't let his past sins weigh him down or become an obstacle to what God wanted him to do.

Look at St Peter. Here are his words in the face of Jesus' miraculous powers: "Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man." In other words, "I am not worthy to be in your presence of part of your group. And Peter would eventually betray Christ! Still Jesus didn't cut the tie with him. He used those very things to change him. Just like he used Paul's persecution of Christians to change his life. Both men would come to a point of such confidence in Jesus' words that they would be able to acknowledge their sins but would also have the courage to stop looking back. They moved forward in Christ and accomplished the task given them.

I would say this: if you have no struggles at all in your life, then be afraid and question yourself. So, don't let your doubts or negative attitudes cause you to miss the power of Christ in your life. Our sins and failings should not cause us to avoid Jesus, but instead to cry out: Stay with me, Lord, for I am a sinful person. The Lord wants to save us from what otherwise would shame us. So, do not be afraid. I will let St Theresa of Avila have the last word:

Let nothing disturb you,
Let nothing frighten you,
All things are passing;
God never changes.
Patient endurance attains all things;
One who possesses God
Is wanting in nothing;
God alone suffices.

A BIBLICAL WALK THROUGH THE MASS

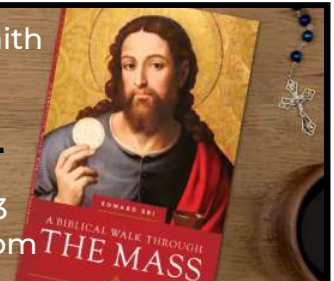

We may go to Mass with good intent, but our minds may wander. Some of the rituals, words or gestures may have become routine or seem outdated. However, everything we say and do in the Liturgy is steeped in biblical language.

We will explore the extraordinary biblical roots of the Liturgy and reveal what it all means and why it all matters. Contemporary videos, down-to-earth explanations and friendly discussion.

To join, email: catholic@sjnparish.org (materials need to be ordered)

Lenten Adult Faith Program with Msgr. Matz

5 Thursdays,
March 6—April 3
1:00 pm & 7:00 pm

The preparations for the launch of our Celebrating Our Faith, Embracing Our Future campaign in mid-March continue. We are currently working on communication materials including a Frequently Asked Questions series that begins this weekend (see bulletin insert or click here) and our campaign brochure which will fully explain our campaign goal and projects. In addition, we are finalizing renderings for the church and school projects and are excited to share them with our community in the coming weeks. Thank you for your patience as we continue working behind the scenes.

$5,700 raised! These funds will support the work of these organizations that help the vulnerable:

LILY'S GIFT offers free services focusing on meeting the needs of families who have received a prenatal diagnosis.

THE TERRI SCHIAVO LIFE & HOPE NETWORK upholds human dignity through service to the medically vulnerable.

LEGACY OF LIFE FOUNDATION offers pregnancy testing through and including pregnancy and post-pregnancy care. LOLF invests in educating, inspiring and supporting women in unplanned pregnancies to find the strength to choose life.

PROJECT HOME community's mission is to empower adults, children, and families to break the cycle of homelessness and poverty.

ST. EDMOND'S HOME provides an exceptional holistic outcome-oriented plan of care for children with intellectual and physical disabilities.

Our Spiritual Baby

After the Saturday Vigil Mass, parishioner Ryan Sheaffer reached into our basket to select from folded papers each with "girl" or "boy" noted. The paper Ryan selected revealed that our baby is a girl. Over the weekend, 135 parishioners voted for her name, selecting from four North American saint namesakes. In a neck and neck count (all vote totals were within 4 votes of each other), this year's Spiritual Baby is Katherine, named after St. Katherine Drexel.

Welcome to our family Katherine! Our parish is now the happy home of eight spiritual children: Luke (2018), Jerome (2019), Cecilia (2020), Joseph (2021), Maximillian (2022), Stephen (2023), Felicity (2024) and Katherine (2025)!

OCIA: Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (formerly RCIA)

OCIA is a pathway for adults to become members of the Catholic Church. It's a journey of faith that involves learning about Catholic beliefs and practices, and receiving the sacraments of initiation.

We will begin a new OCIA journey at St. John Neumann Parish this winter.

Anyone who may be interested in becoming a member of the Catholic Church is invited to join us!

Rachel's Vineyard, March 28—30, 2025

IHM Spirituality Center, Malvern, PA

A place to heal from the emotional or spiritual pain of an abortion. There is hope for healing. Retreats offer a safe and supportive environment where men and women begin to transform their pain into a future filled with hope. Retreats are a space for healing and God's forgiveness to those who feel burdened by the trauma and darkness of an abortion.

God's mercy is greater. God's mercy is infinite

Prayer for Grace

O my God and my all,
in your goodness and mercy,
grant that before I die
I may regain all the graces which I have lost through my carelessness and folly.

Permit me to attain the degree of merit and perfection to which you desire to lead me,
and which I failed by my unfaithfulness to reach.

Mercifully grant also that others regain the graces which they have lost through my fault.
This I humbly beg
through the merits of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and Immaculate Virgin Mary.
Amen.

G.K. Chesterton's Father Brown of the Church of Rome: Selected Mystery Stories

This is a unique collection of ten of Chesterton's famous Father Brown stories which puts special emphasis on the role that Brown's Catholic faith played in helping him solve the murder mysteries. As Dorothy Sayers once wrote, Chesterton was "the first man of our time to introduce the great name of God into a detective story ... to enlarge the boundaries of the detective story by making it deal with death and real wickedness and real, that is to say, divine judgment."

Ignatius Press

This paperback Father Brown edition includes generous footnotes (not available in other editions) which help to clarify the literary and historical allusions made by Father Brown. It is based on the texts of the original editions by Chesterton for assurance of complete authenticity, and is set in easily readable type.

These are excellent short detective yarns in the classic British tradition of Sherlock Holmes — puzzling concoctions of mysterious crimes, dubious suspects and ambiguous clues. They are among the very best of the Father Brown stories.
