(grotto-side entry)

Regina was going off on her mother again to her friend Maryanne. Regina was describing her mother as a very controlling, and rather self-centered person, always disappointed if things don't go her own way. Sure, Regina loved her Mom, but she would get so aggravated over the things she would say in their regular weekly phone conversations.

This was not the first time that Maryanne had heard this kind of outburst. Here's the funny thing though: As Maryanne was listening to Regina, she was thinking to herself, "Doesn't Regina realize that the very things that she complains about in her Mother, are the very things that she herself does! Why can't she "connect the dots"?"

I would venture to say that the little scene that I've described for you is pretty common. And many of you might be shaking your head and thinking that you've experienced that very thing yourself. Jesus says to us: "Why do you notice the splinter in your brother's eye, but do not perceive the wooden beam in your own?" A familiar passage from Scripture. It is obvious to all of us what Jesus is getting at. Yet so often when we criticize another person, especially someone very close to us, we are really trying to make ourselves feel better about who we are. But Jesus is reminding us that no one has the right to criticize unless that person is free from faults—and no one is free from faults.

Here's an interesting way of putting it: "there's so much bad in the best of us and so much good in the worst of us that it ill becomes any of us to find fault with the rest of us".

A retreat director, one time, in an attempt to drive home the point of this passage, make use of the following exercise: the director asked each person in the group he was working with to call to mind a person that they found uniquely hard to take, and then to recount, in some detail, the characteristics of that person that made him or her so obnoxious—so difficult to take. The people in that session certainly got into that exercise!

After a few minutes of silence, the director then offered this devastating recommendation: "Now I want each of you to return to your rooms and ask God to forgive you for those very faults in yourself".

So, in the end, Jesus is asking all of us to "connect the dots". Perhaps the very thing in another person that drives us crazy, is actually something that, deep down in ourselves, is a similar failing that we possess but just don't see right away.

Maybe all of us, especially during this Season of Lent, should do what that retreat director suggested: "Return to your rooms and ask God to forgive you for those very faults in yourself." It may at first be an unnerving experience. But ultimately it will be illuminating, and healing.

Adoration

during
Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament

[Jesus] took bread, and when he had given thanks he broke it and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

– Luke 22:19

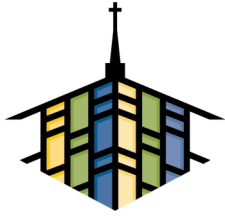

We may not know what to say or do, we may get bored, and then lose sight of what Adoration is all about. This pamphlet is to help each of us make the most out of this time with our Lord.

Adoration is beautiful in its simplicity and its flexibility. We can shape our time in response to what we hear from the Lord and what our heart is yearning to say to the Lord.

It is a time simply to be present to our God who welcomes and accepts us. In the words of St. John Vianney, it is a time when "I look at Him and he looks at me."

THURSDAYS IN LENT—ALL DAY UNTIL 7 PM.

CELEBRATING OUR FAITH,
Embracing our Future

After months of preparation, next weekend, March 15-16 is the official kickoff to our Celebrating Our Faith, Embracing Our Future capital campaign to renovate our church to enhance the liturgical experience and to expand and renovate our school for a better learning environment.

THIS WEEK, EVERY FAMILY IN OUR PARISH AND SCHOOL COMMUNITIES WILL RECEIVE A PACKET OF INFORMATION WHICH INCLUDES A FINANCIAL REQUEST AND INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW YOU CAN INVEST IN THE FUTURE OF ST. JOHN NEUMANN PARISH.

Our Campaign webpage is live!
Keep up to date with all the latest info & happenings
Visit sjnparish.org/campaign

In advance of the mailing, we want to express several thoughts regarding this campaign and what is being asked of our families:

◆ Invitation not Expectation

Every family will be asked to consider a specific commitment to the campaign. We have gone through an exhaustive process to determine requests that are appropriate for each family. That said, in some cases our request may be too high. In some cases, it may be too low. It is not an expectation. It is an invitation – and the starting point for your personal discernment. Ultimately, the parish is grateful for whatever gifts you can provide.

◆ Reflect and Pray

In advance of the request, we ask that you spend some time reflecting on St. John Neumann Parish, its future and how you can help. Pray and ask the Lord for guidance

◆ Shared Responsibility

This campaign should not be shouldered by one family, or a few families. It is the responsibility of the entire community to ensure this effort is a success.

Our Next FAQ

This week we are sharing the next in our FAQ series, focused on common questions:

- ◆ When can we begin construction on our projects?
- ◆ What elements of our church will remain with the renovation?
- ◆ Are we losing pews/seats with the interior remodel of the church?
- ◆ Where will Masses be held while the church is being renovated?
- ◆ How will the new classrooms be used?
- ◆ When is the Township requiring us to remove the school classroom trailers?

Restore Lent Series | Week One

In the Week One video for the Restore Lent series, Sr. Miriam James Heidland, SOLT, reflects on the theme of the week—the desert. She explains that Jesus is inviting you to move beyond your comfort zone and into the deepest places of your heart with him. It is Jesus who helps you root out the sin, sickness and self-hatred in your life. Sr. Miriam assures us that we can look to him for comfort, love and healing.

Archdiocesan Lenten Book Club

The Archbishop's Commission on Racial Healing is pleased to announce our Lenten book club series, in collaboration with the Parish of the Cathedral Basilica of SS. Peter & Paul!

THERE WILL BE TWO SESSIONS OFFERED:

- ◆ Online at 7pm on Mondays in Lent (March 10, 17, 24, 31, and April 7)
- ◆ In-person at 7pm on Fridays in Lent at the Cathedral Basilica of SS. Peter & Paul (March 7, 14, 21, and April 4 and 11)

During Lent, we'll read/journal/pray our way through the wonderful book by Patrick Saint-Jean, S.J., The Spiritual Work of Racial Justice: A Month of Meditations with St. Ignatius Loyola.

RSVP if you'd like to be part of a peer-guided weekly in-person gathering to reflect on how the life, death and resurrection of Jesus, as Fr. Patrick shares it with us, sheds piercing light on the sin of racism and how to begin to heal its effects on all of us.

The meditations follow the framework of the Ignatian Spiritual Exercises as laid out by St. Ignatius of Loyola.

The book club is free to attend. SIGN-UP HERE
