Pray the Rosary with us!

Every day after the 8:00 am Mass— come for Mass or stop by at 8:25 am

A man's daughter had asked a priest to visit her sick father. The priest found the man lying in bed with his head propped up on two pillows. An empty chair sat by the bed. The priest assumed that the old guy knew he was coming.

"I guess you've been expecting me," he said. "No, who are you?" said the father.

The priest told him his name and then remarked, "I saw the empty chair and I figured you knew I was coming."

"Oh yeah, the chair," said the bed-ridden man. "Would you mind closing the door?"

Puzzled, the priest shut the door.

"I've never told anyone this, not even my daughter," said the man. "But all of my life I have never known how to pray. At church I used to hear priests talk about prayer, but it went right over my head. I abandoned any attempt at prayer until one day four years ago, my best friend said to me, 'prayer is just having a conversation with Jesus. Here is what I suggest. Sit down in a chair; place an empty chair in front of you, and in faith, see Jesus on the chair. It's not weird because he promised, 'I will be with you always'. Then just speak to him in the same way you're doing with me right now.'

So, I tried it and I've liked it so much that I do it a couple of hours every day. I'm careful, though. If my daughter saw me talking to an empty chair, she'd either have a nervous breakdown, or send me off to the funny farm."

The priest was deeply moved by the story and encouraged the old man to continue his practice of prayer. Then he heard his confession, anointed him, and returned to the parish.

Two nights later the daughter called to tell the priest that her dad had died that afternoon.

"Did he die in peace?" he asked.

"Yes, when I left the house about two o'clock, he called me over to his bedside, told me he loved me and kissed me on the cheek. When I got back from the CVS half an hour later, I found him dead. But there was something strange about his death. Apparently, just before Dad died, he leaned over and rested his head on the chair beside the bed. What do you make of that?"

The priest wiped a tear from his eye and said, "I wish we could all go like that."

A story about prayer is a good way to begin this season of Lent, and this story connects to a thought-provoking way of looking at sin that I'd like to share with you:

Sin is disobeying God because we don't trust him. Disobedience from a lack of trust is at the core of most sins. The evil spirit wants to separate us from God, the source of real happiness, so he weakens our trust and lures us onto other paths. Sadly, many of the things that attract us in this wrong direction are actually an illusion—they're not real.

The old guy in the story learned that prayer is not so much a technique to be mastered, rather, it's a relationship with Christ—a relationship that we learn to have more and more confidence in as we persevere through life's experiences. Although he said he didn't know how to pray, he certainly learned the relationship aspect of prayer, and it saw him through.

For all of us, then, having a relationship with Christ through prayer helps us to be open to the Grace that the Lord offers us. We learn where to turn when we are confronted with temptation and weakness. In the end, we come to realize that we can never conquer our sins on our own, that we need Jesus' help. That's why we need to seek a trusting relationship through prayer.

So, as we embark upon this Lenten journey, let's remember what our ultimate goal in life is: to be united with God in heaven. And when we reach the end of our life journey, perhaps someone will say of us: "I wish I could go like that."

STATIONS OF THE CROSS—A PILGRIMAGE: FRIDAYS AT 5:30 PM (less than 30 mins)

See our pamphlet on the fourteen Stations together with insights from Pope Francis on the fruits of praying and meditating on them. CLICK HERE or scan the QR Code—they are also available at the doors of the church.

We invite you to step away from your daily routine and connect with Jesus through a prayerful journey on his way of the cross.

Tradition holds that Jesus walked from Pilate's praetorium to Golgotha (the Place of the Skull) on his last day on earth. The devotion known as "the way", or Stations of the Cross (Via Crucis), originated with pilgrims who walked the Via Dolorosa (the "way of tears") in Jerusalem. This began during the Turkish occupation of the Holy Land in the late Middle Ages, when pilgrims were prevented from visiting sacred sites. The custom arose of making replicas of those holy places, where the faithful might come to pray. By the late sixteenth century the fourteen stations, as we know them today, were erected in most Catholic churches.

CELEBRATING OUR FAITH,
Embracing our Future

This weekend marks the official launch to our Celebrating Our Faith, Embracing Our Future campaign – a critical effort to renovate our church interior to enhance the liturgical experience and expand and renovate our school for a better learning environment.

Over the coming weeks, our team of volunteers will be reaching out to families to discuss the campaign, answer questions and seek your support. Due to our number of volunteers, we may not be able to personally contact every family – but we do hope that all families will choose to participate in this important campaign. The launch of this effort also brings to light some common questions. Here are a few worth addressing:

Our Campaign webpage is live!

Keep up to date with all the latest info & happenings

Visit sjnparish.org/campaign

How did you come up with my request amount?

The amounts are based on a number of factors, including giving history. Our goal is to challenge everyone to consider supporting St. John Neumann Parish in a meaningful and sacrificial way, in a manner that works for each family.

Who is being asked to support the campaign?

Every registered parish and all school families are asked to participate in the campaign.

Why should I/we consider supporting the campaign?

Throughout the Bible we are reminded that we have been called by the Lord to build His kingdom.

“Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain.” 1 Corinthians 15:58.

This project doesn't fall on the shoulders of one family or a few. It is the responsibility of everyone at St. John Neumann Parish to hear God's call and to continue to grow His ministry. The obligation rests with everyone to do their part to raise the necessary funding. We all need to identify and make sacrificial and meaningful donations to ensure the campaign is a success.

Mar. 19: St. Joseph

St. Joseph is known in the Gospels as a humble carpenter, the husband of Mary, and foster father of Jesus. Joseph's paternal care of Jesus, loving protection of Mary, and his commitment to the education of Jesus led to him being declared patron of the whole Church. Many popes have written about St. Joseph, including Pope Leo XIII in Quamquam pluries and Pope John Paul II in Redemptoris custos. Throughout Church history, many famous pieces of art have depicted scenes in the life of St. Joseph, from Jesus' birth and childhood, to St. Joseph's carpentry, to his death.
