CONFESSIONS WILL BE IN THE CHURCH ON TUESDAY, OCT. 7

Sacrament of Marriage

Congratulations,

Allison Wagner
& Tyler Shankle

Erica Bower
& Matthew Monteleone

In 1993 Steven Spielberg came out with one of his most powerful films, Schindler's List. It's the true story of a German businessman, Oskar Schindler, who came to Poland during the Nazi occupation there to take advantage of the situation and make money.

He made friends with some of the German officials and used Jewish workers as free labor in his factory. Since he didn't have to pay them he was able to rake in quite a profit.

But, little by little, his eyes began to open to the real horrors of the Nazi regime. And in this he has a change of heart; he starts to use his factory and his connections with the officials to save these Jewish workers from the Holocaust. Oskar used the money he had made during the early part of the war to "buy" more and more Jewish workers just so he could save their lives. By the end of the war he was completely broke, but he had saved hundreds of Jews from death.

In one of the last scenes of the film, after the Nazis have surrendered, we see Oskar surrounded by the workers whom he saved, and they are thanking him. They present him with a ring as an expression of their bond with him and also as a sign of their gratitude for what he did for them.

At this point Schindler breaks down, and thru his tears he looks around at the people he saved and tells them that he could have done more. He could have sold more of his possessions to rescue even more people. It's a very beautiful scene as the Jews people surrounding him say, "You did so much".

The film is meant to show in some way the horrors of the Holocaust and all of the terrible things these people had to go through, but it is also the story of the conversion of one man. As the story unfolds He begins to make connections in ways that he never did before. His vision of himself and those around him---his sense of purpose begins to change. He sees those working in his factory differently. He begins to care about them and their circumstances---the horror and injustice they have to face. He goes from making everything about making money to using whatever resources he has to rescue those workers he has come to love.

In the story that Jesus tells today, he's encouraging all of us to start to make some connections. To "not get lost in yourself". We do that. We put various aspects of our life in "compartments" and fail to see the connections. The rich man is not a bad person, but he was lost in himself and missed what was going on around him. And by the time that he put it all together---especially regarding the purpose of his life---it was too late.

The character in Spielberg's film moved away from trying to answer the question: "What am I getting out of this?" Or "What's in it for me?" To "What is being asked of me?"

We are asked to do the same.

Oct. 9: Our Lady of the Rosary

The Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary is a celebration of the Christian victory over the Turks at Lepanto in 1571, attributed to the praying of the rosary before the battle. St. Pius V instituted the feast in thanksgiving for the Lord's divine assistance, and the feast has also been known as the Feast of the Holy Rosary and the Feast of Our Lady of Victory. May the feast of Our Lady of the Rosary remind us to take refuge in Our Lady by praying the rosary, contemplating the life of Christ through prayer and Scripture.

Celebrating Our Faith, Embracing Our Future

We are pleased to share that we've made significant progress on our capital campaign and plans for the new campus addition. Our conversations with the Township over the summer have been very productive, and we're moving in the right direction toward securing the necessary approvals. While there's still more work to be done, we're feeling very optimistic and hope to share a more detailed update with you later this fall.

The project is happening — and we couldn't be more excited about what this means for the future of our parish school. Thank you for your continued support, enthusiasm, and partnership as we take this next big step together.

Healing Mass —

Saturday Oct. 18th @ 5:15 pm

If you or a loved one may benefit from receiving the sacrament of the anointing of the sick, join us for this beautiful Mass.

PLEASE REGISTER IN ADVANCE:

Contact Clare at the Rectory:
610-525-3100 or email:
catholic@sjnparish.org

In the essential rite of the sacrament, the priest lays his hands on the sick person's head. Then he anoints the person on the forehead and palms of the hands with the oil of the sick, a holy oil that has been blessed by the Bishop.

"Come to me, all you who are weary and find life burdensome, and I will refresh you. Take my yoke upon your shoulders and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble of heart. Your souls will find rest, for my yoke is easy and my burden light."

— Matthew 11:28-30

One does not need to be in a critical state of health to receive this sacrament.

John XXIII: The Pope of Peace

This movie tells the life story of John XXIII from his youth through his young priesthood, episcopacy, life as Cardinal, and eventually his life as Pope. Elected supposedly as an "interim Pope" who would just keep the status quo and listen to the advisers around him, John XXIII proved to be his own man when he surprised the Church and world by calling for the Second Vatican Council.

The Joyful Mysteries

St. Padre Pio said, "The Rosary is the 'weapon' for these times." This incredible film series takes viewers right to the Holy Land, where these Mysteries actually happened, encouraging deeper reflection and meditation on them.

Divine Mercy with Fr. Michael Gaitley

Renowned speaker and author Fr. Michael Gaitley tells the dramatic history of God's love and mercy as interwoven through the transformative message of St. Faustina, the miraculous appearance of Mary at Fatima, the witness of Maximilian Kolbe, and the world-changing papacy of Pope St. John Paul II.

Act of faith

My God, I believe in you, and all that your Church teaches, because you have said it, and your word is true.

Lord, I believe in you because...

- ... the beauty of the world speaks of you.
- ... the goodness in the world comes from you.
- ... I can discern and know the truth.
- ... the laws of the universe are ordered.
- ... your creation is sustained in being.
- ... I am a mystery to myself that your words illuminate.
- ... you are the foundation of truth.
- ... you are too great for me to fully understand.
- ... trustworthy people have believed in you for centuries.
- ... of the witness of science.
- ... of the witness of the saints.
- ... of the witness of the Gospels.
- ... you have given me the gift of faith.

Increase my faith.

Oct. 9: St. John Leonardi, Priest (1541-1609)

"I am only one person! Why should I do anything? What good would it do?" Today, as in any age, people seem plagued with the dilemma of getting involved. In his own way, John Leonardi answered these questions. He chose to become a priest. After his ordination, Saint John Leonardi became very active in the works of the ministry, especially in hospitals and prisons. The example and dedication of his work attracted several young laymen who began to assist him. They later became priests themselves.

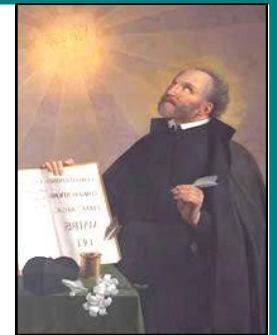

John lived after the Protestant Reformation and the Council of Trent. He and his followers projected a new congregation of diocesan priests. For some reason the plan, which was ultimately approved, provoked great political opposition. John was exiled from his home town of Lucca, Italy, for almost the entire remainder of his life. He received encouragement and help from Saint Philip Neri, who gave him his lodgings—along with the care of his cat!

In 1579, Saint John Leonardi formed the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, and published a compendium of Christian doctrine that remained in use until the 19th century.

Father Leonardi and his priests became a great power for good in Italy, and their congregation was confirmed by Pope Clement in 1595. John died at the age of 68 from a disease caught when tending those stricken by the plague.

What can one person do? The answer is plenty! In the life of each saint, one thing stands clear: God and one person are a majority! What one individual, following God's will and plan for his or her life, can do is more than our mind could ever hope for or imagine. Each of us, like John Leonardi, has a mission to fulfill in God's plan for the world. Each one of us is unique and has been given talent to use for the service of our brothers and sisters for the building up of God's kingdom.
