A young priest ordained about five years ago goes to see an older priest who happens to be his spiritual director. Here's part of their conversation:

The younger priest says, "I just got a call from the Clergy Office and I was told that they want to make me a pastor. I hesitated and then said, 'I'm not sure I'm ready'. But the Vicar for Clergy said that he thought I was and that the Bishop really wanted me to do this. So, of course, out of obedience to the Bishop, I said that I would. So, when I asked where I was going, he said he couldn't tell me—that I would have to wait for my meeting with the Bishop. So now I'm a nervous wreck wondering where they are going to send me! And I've been looking at the Catholic Directory trying to figure out who might be retiring or who said that they wanted a change."

Then the young guy asked the older guy, "Do you have any idea where you think I will end up?"

And the older priest smiled and asked, "Did you pray about this?" The young priest looks at him and says, "Well, sure, I've been saying my Office (Morning and Evening Prayer), the Rosary and all those things..."

The older priest interrupted him and said, "No, I don't mean that. Did you sit in quiet and ask God to help you?" And the young priest said, "Yes. I guess, but I need you to help me figure out where I'm going to be assigned. I know God is part of all this, but I have to use my own skills, too, don't I?"

The older priest says, "If you want my advice, I'd leave it in God's hands. Don't you try to pick your next assignment, let God pick it for you."

The young priest just stared at him and didn't say anything. The older priest then said, "Where is your faith? Don't you believe that God is involved in all that's happening to you. So, turn to Christ. He has brought you this far, he's not going to abandon you now. Calm down and realize that God is the one in charge. This is not about the Clergy Office choosing your assignment, or you trying to maneuver to get the assignment you want. You're not choosing, and the Bishop isn't choosing, either! Let God pick the parish. Remember what Jesus says: "Oh, ye of little faith".

Our readings today are about the power of faith, and having confidence in God. Particularly, the Gospel tells us that faith is the greatest force in the world. But sometimes life's experiences make it difficult for us to accept this. How often do we find ourselves saying what the Prophet Habakkuk says, "How long, O Lord? I cry for help, but you do not listen!"

A strong faith doesn't mean we won't suffer from time to time and be confused sometimes in life. It doesn't mean that our crosses will be taken away. But a strong faith does show us where to turn when we face difficulties: to God. God does answer the prophet's prayer and he promises that he will act, that he will restore Israel's fortunes, but, if you notice, he doesn't give all the details as to how he will accomplish this. Actually, God is saying that it may take longer than the prophet would like: "If it delays, wait for it."

The disciples ask Jesus, "increase our faith, and Jesus says, "Use the faith that I gave you. It can move mountains". Even that which looks completely impossible becomes possible.

So, we need to pray for the grace to have faith. Let God be God and don't think that it's all about you and what you can figure out on your own. Don't let your fears paralyze you. Turn to Christ and realize that he's more involved than you think. Pray for the grace to have faith and live in peace, for today.

Let me leave you with these words. Picture Christ saying them directly to you to you.

Try to see things from my perspective. Try to view the world through me. When little things don't go as you had hoped, look to Me and say with a light heart, Oh well. Doing this can protect you from being burdened with an accumulation of petty cares and frustrations. If you practice this diligently, you will make a life-changing discovery: You realize that most of the things that worry you are not important. If you shrug them off immediately and return your focus to me, you will walk through your days with lighter steps and a joyful heart. When serious problems come your way, you will have more reserves for dealing with them. You will not have squandered your energy on petty problems. You may even reach the point where you can agree with the apostle Paul, that all your troubles are light and momentary, compared with the eternal glory being achieved by them.

October, Month of the Holy Rosary

October is the month of the Rosary, because the anniversary of victory at the Battle at Lepanto and the feast of Our Lady of the Rosary occurring in October. The Battle of Lepanto and the institution of the feast day took place in the 17th century; in the late 1800s, Pope Leo XIII officially dedicated the entire month to devotion to the Holy Rosary.

Celebrating Our Faith, Embracing Our Future

On Monday, October 6, the SJN team presented to the Haverford Township Board of Commissioners to advance the school portion of our project. We presented to the Board in two different meetings. The first was related to 'conditional use' of the school building given that we are in an Institutional Zone. Our SCJN Principal, Mrs. Kelly Ciminera, testified on our behalf. Their questions and our discussion was straightforward and positive. The Board will render their decision on Conditional Use as soon as October 14 but possibly after. The second meeting was to address Land Development requirements. Again, the presentation went well and our team comfortably addressed various questions from the Board. The conversation was positive. The Board's decision on approval for our waivers and our land development program is also anticipated on October 14.

Healing Mass —

Saturday Oct. 18th @ 5:15 pm

If you or a loved one may benefit from receiving the sacrament of the anointing of the sick, join us for this beautiful Mass.

One does not need to be in a critical state of health to receive this sacrament.

PLEASE REGISTER IN AD-

VANCE:

Contact the Rectory: 610-525-3100 or email: catholic@sjnparish.org

NEXT WEEKEND!

In the essential rite of the sacrament, the priest lays his hands on the sick person's head. Then he anoints the person on the forehead and palms of the hands with the oil of the sick, a holy oil that has been blessed by the Bishop.

"Come to me, all you who are weary and find life burdensome, and I will refresh you. Take my yoke upon your shoulders and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble of heart. Your souls will find rest, for my yoke is easy and my burden light."

— Matthew 11:28-30

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY
OCTOBER 19

Next weekend, the Church invites us to rediscover our Missionary vocation. This year, Pope Leo XIV, following the inspiration of Pope Francis, calls us to become "Missionaries of Hope Among the Peoples," inspired by St. Paul's words: "Hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit." Rom 5:5.

Your offering provides hope where despair too often dominates; through the building of churches; development and running of Catholic schools, orphanages, healthcare clinics; and the formation of Seminarians, Religious and Catechists.

Thank you for your prayers and support.

Oct. 16: St. Callistus I, Pope and Martyr

Callistus was born in the late second century as a slave to a Christian master. His master noticed that Callistus had skill in finance and put him in charge of a bank. Some enemies of Callistus falsely accused him of embezzlement. Terrified, Callistus tried to escape from Rome. He was caught and condemned to the mines of Sardinia. After partially serving his sentence, he was released so that he might recover some of the money. He was arrested for fighting and sent back to the mines. Fortunately for him and other Christians, Marcia, the emperor's mistress, won their release.

Pope Zephyrinus made Callistus manager of the burial grounds. Even today the land is named the cemetery of Saint Callistus. Callistus proved himself responsible and was ordained a deacon. In 217, Callistus was elected as the next Pontiff. This shocked Hippolytus and his followers. In rebellion, this group elected Hippolytus as pope, later known as the first antipope. This made two men who claimed to be pope.

A schism, or split, in the Church went on for 18 years. Pope Callistus I gently tried to encourage Hippolytus to understand his error. At the same time, Callistus tried to make wise rules for the Church. He felt there should be mercy for those who had fallen away during persecution but who later repented. Callistus said the Church has the authority to forgive all sins. This angered Hippolytus, who felt that Callistus was lenient. Hippolytus wrote bitterly about the Pope, who bore the insults calmly and humbly. Callistus I remained steady in his desire to bring peace to the Church. He was martyred in a riot.

SCRIPTURE AND THE ROSARY

For Gratefulness and Remembrance of Those Less Fortunate

O God,

Thank you for all that I have each day.

When I have food...

help me to remember the hungry;

When I have work...

help me to remember the jobless;

When I have a home...

help me to remember those who have no home at all;

When I am without pain...

help me to remember those who suffer.

And by remembering,

help me to destroy my complacency, stir my compassion, and be concerned enough to help,
by word and deed, those who cry out for what we take for granted.

Amen.
