Sanctuary Flowers

Flowers Presented in Front of the Altar ~

In Memory of Patricia Kreck
from Cindy Barton

I'm thinking of a man who, on the surface, seemed to be the nicest guy you would ever want to meet. He has a wonderful wife and a great family. He's involved in the community, coaches several sports teams and can be the life of the party at social gatherings. Yet, what no one knows, including his wife and family, is that this man is not such a nice person—that he's involved in some very shady business deals and other things that he would rather not have his family and friends know about.

At a certain point in their relationship, his wife senses that there is something “not right” with her husband. The fact that he's out a lot and seems to be very vague about what he's doing. One day she confronts him and he just says that he's had a lot to deal with at work. Then he starts to change his schedule a bit and is around the house more regularly. His wife begins to settle down and is less suspicious. She thinks to herself that maybe she was jumping to conclusions.

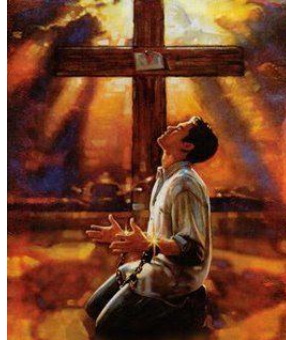

But the reality is that this man is still up to his “not so nice” things. He's just learned to be more of a sneak and cover his tracks a little better. So, he keeps on lying to his wife and continues to be involved in things that would have made his kids ashamed of him. He was not the person people thought he was.

In the Gospel, we hear the strange story of a man who came to a party not dressed properly. This was so insulting to the host that the man is cast out into the darkness.

Here's what Christ is telling us: If you are not who you claim to be, speaking one way but acting another, God is going to call you on that! So, using vivid imagery, Jesus is saying, “get your act together and stop doing the things that you know are wrong; and if you are caught up in something that has overtaken your life, get the help you need to break away from it. Don't live a lie!”

As people of faith, we are asked to follow the commandments and when we sin to seek forgiveness. The wedding garment is not about clothes at all, but rather it's about our decision to amend our lives as Christ would have us do. We are invited to the “party” (to be part of Christ in heaven), but we can't do that unless we are “properly attired.” The way that we do that is ask Jesus to help you get rid of the obstacles in our lives, to stop pretending. We are properly attired when we live our lives that way Christ taught us; by being willing to forgive, by not putting ourselves first all the time, by participating in the Eucharistic banquet that is prepared for us. These are the things that are important to God.

Our “yes” must mean “yes,” our “no” to sin and evil must mean just that. We can't say we are with God and then be part of the evil of the world. Now, this doesn't mean that we have to be perfect before we enter the doors of the church, but we have to be open to allowing the Lord to transform us and heal us.

Here's what the great Scripture scholar William Barclay wrote: “Grace is not only a gift; it is a serious responsibility. We cannot go on living the life we lived before we met Jesus Christ. The door is open, but not for the sinner to come and remain a sinner, but for the sinner to come and become a saint.”

Wear the wedding garment. Come properly dressed to the party—the feast that the Lord provides. Our salvation really depends on it!

We will host the families at:

BE A PART OF OUR COMMUNITY'S FUTURE.

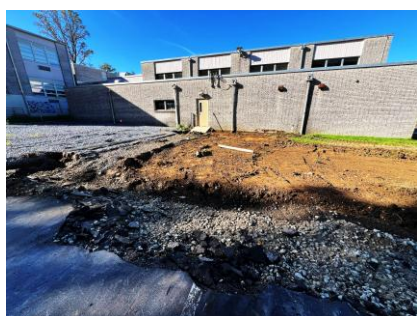

HELP PREPARE OUR PARISH FOR THE NEXT 60 YEARS. THANK YOU!

❖ Ground has been broken and digging underway to begin building the SCJN School Addition!

❖ The excavator has been digging up bucket after bucket of soil and dumping into the truck for removal.

❖ The curbing has been removed to make way for the new structure and parking.

❖ Meanwhile, students are captivated by the excavator's work!

Thank you!

Our St. John Neumann Rosary Group came together to celebrate Theresa O'Donnell & Anne Schwelm for their dedication for 25 years of leading the group each week in praying the Rosary for peace. The group presented them with a statue of Our Lady of the Rosary and a rosary of their patron Saints. Join us Mondays at 7 pm (grotto or chapel, weather dependent).

A grand blessing! Not even the rain could keep ~20 pets from coming to SJN to receive a blessing from Msgr. Matz on the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi. All were happy and peaceful!

Eternal Father,
By virtue of your generosity and love, I ask that you accept all my actions and that you multiply their value in favor of every soul in Purgatory. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

October, Respect Life Month:

Building a culture that cherishes
and protects every human life.

A Prayer for Pregnant Mothers and Their Babies

Heavenly Father, Giver of all life,

Give us hearts that cherish every unborn child and courage to protect those who have no voice.

Strengthen every mother to welcome the gift of life, and make us generous in offering the love, support, and hope she needs.

Through the intercession of Mary, Mother of Life, help us build a culture where every child is welcomed, and every mother is supported.

Mary, Mother of Life, pray for us.

Amen.

LEND YOUR SUPPORT AND PRAYER TO SAVE LIVES!

Month, please join fellow parishioner Chris Pushaw in prayer outside the Planned Parenthood Center at 12th & Locust in Philly
this Wednesday morning, Oct. 21; stop by any time between 9:00 am – 1:00 pm.

If you have not done this before, prayer in
