From the Pastor

Ben was a football coach in the local junior high school. He was very good at putting together great teams. On one particular occasion his team was playing a game that he really wanted to win. In the second quarter his best player got hurt; and the boy insisted on continuing to play. Ben really wanted this win, so he sent the kid back in, and he let him play the next set of downs. But then suddenly he thought to himself, "What am I doing? The boy might have a concussion. I'm playing around with the rest of his life!" Ben called the boy's father out of the stands and told him that his son should be taken to the Emergency Room and be checked out.

The game was lost in the last quarter.

Years later, when Ben retired, many of his former players showed up for his retirement celebration. His assistant coach, Dan, was one of the speakers. He told the people present that Ben was a great coach who taught young people the fundamentals of life—-the values that were important. Then Dan said, "The moment I knew we had a quality coach was when Ben, concerned that one of his players might have had a serious injury which could lead to something more serious, took that boy out of the game and made sure he was taken to the hospital. The lost game didn't matter. That's when I realized Ben knew what was important in life. It wasn't about wins. Ben's faith helped him overcome the world's desire for success." Then Dan concluded his speech by saying, "This is a Christian man who knows that people are way more important than wins. And I am sure that God looks at it the same way."

"Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God". This is what Jesus says to the Pharisees who are trying to trip Him up. Repay to Caesar what belongs to him—-the coin with Caesar's image. Repay to God what belongs to God—-the human person stamped with God's image.

How do we repay to God what belongs to God? By trying every day to conform our will to the Father. Here's what the opening prayer states: "Grant that we may always conform our will to yours and serve your majesty in sincerity of heart".

Ben, in the story, was a person who, by his good example to so many young people, showed that he was stamped with the image of God. He gave back to God what was God's, his life lived in faith and integrity.

We are also asked to give back to God what is God's, namely our life lived in faith and sincerity of heart.

A lot has happened with construction on our campus!

Plexiglass was installed in the clerestory to better withstand inclement weather, just ahead of the recent storms.

Next, work began on the 'overbuild' – a structure to house the new A/C ducts. This is a permanent 'goodbye' to the big white soffits/boxes hanging from the ceiling in church!

Inside, the floor just outside the sanctuary was jack-hammered to allow for laying new pipes for the heating system. This solves 2 needs: position pipes to enable the adjusted heating plan and ensure that the 60-year-old underground pipes were no longer subject to corrosion – thus eliminating the increasing possibility for leaks (and thus future disruption of the newly installed marble flooring).

Meanwhile, at the school, the excavator continued to haul away dirt so that the foundation can be laid.

With trenching completed, rebar was placed to ready the area for pouring cement for the foundation's floor & walls.

The pouring of cement has begun.

Wood structures to help form the foundation's walls are in place. Soon more cement will be poured.

Students are finding the project to be super exciting. They take every chance they get to look out the cafeteria windows and from the parking lot to watch the machinery and see the work progress.

The superintendent is very tall…. One student asked him if he could touch the clouds! ☺

Oct 28: Saints Simon and Jude, Apostles

How do you feel when you are chosen to do something important? Honored, surprised, nervous? Some of the apostles must have felt as you do.

After spending much time in prayer, Jesus decided to choose 12 men, 12 rather unlikely candidates, who would be his apostles and proclaim the Kingdom of God to all people. Simon the Zealot was one who was called. The Zealots were a Jewish group who believed that the promise of the Messiah meant a free and independent Jewish nation where they would never have to pay taxes to the Romans again. Some Zealots were also very concerned that the spiritual ideals of their religion be kept. But others in the group acted more like modern-day terrorists by raiding, killing, and inciting riots. Simon was known as "the zealot" to distinguish him from Simon Peter.

At the same time, Jesus called Jude Thaddeus, brother of James, most likely a fisherman by trade. Along with 10 other men, these two followed Jesus, lived with him, fled when he underwent his Passion, and rejoiced when he rose from the dead. At Pentecost they were filled with the Spirit and a burning desire to spread the Good News to all. Jude traveled to Mesopotamia to preach, and Simon went to Egypt. Eventually they both ended up in Persia, modern-day Iran. There they worked together evangelizing the people until they were both martyred. These two unlikely candidates for apostleship finally witnessed to the risen Lord with their lives. Traditionally Saint Jude the Apostle is identified with the author of the Letter of Jude in the New Testament. He has also come to be known as the saint of hopeless cases. Loyolapress.com

October, Respect Life Month:

Building a culture that cherishes and protects every human life.

"When the angel Gabriel appeared to Mary to tell her that she would conceive and bear a son, Mary responded with her fiat, "May it be done to me according to your word" (Lk 1:38). Mary conceives Christ in her womb, becoming the mother of God, the mother of Jesus. Jesus himself tells us that he is "the way and the truth and the life" (Jn 14:6). In becoming the mother of Jesus, Mary becomes the mother of life. Mary's acceptance in this unforeseen moment demonstrates how each of us must welcome the gift of new human life, even when that gift is unexpected or calls us to make sacrifices."

USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities Respect Life Reflection: "Mary: Mother of Life"

"I would now like to say a special word to women who have had an abortion. The Church is aware of the many factors which may have influenced your decision, and she does not doubt that in many cases it was a painful and even shattering decision. The wound in your heart may not yet have healed. ...But do not give in to discouragement and do not lose hope. ...The Father of mercies is ready to give you his forgiveness and his peace in the Sacrament of Reconciliation."

Pope Saint John Paul II, Evangelium vitae, no. 99. © 1995, Libreria Editrice Vaticana.

What does the word Halloween actually mean?

Halloween is a widely celebrated holiday that has ceased to have any religious associations. It has become a secular holiday focused on candy and dressing up However, this doesn't correlate to the original meaning of Halloween.

The word "Halloween" is a Scottish shortening of the phrase "Allhallow-even," literally meaning "All Holy Evening" and dates to the 18th century. The English have a similar phrase, "All Hallows' Eve," with the same meaning. Both terms denote the night before All Saints Day, November 1, and refer to the celebration of the holy men and women who are recognized in the Catholic Church as residing in Heaven.

Pope Gregory III established the feast during the 18th century after consecrating a chapel named in honor of "All Saints" in St. Peter's Basilica. The feast was then extended to the universal Church by Pope Gregory IV and made into a holy day of obligation for all Catholics. Along with its celebration, All Saints Day was given a special vigil Mass the night before (October 31), which led to that date being regarded by Catholics as a "holy evening."

So while the modern celebration of Halloween is devoid of Christian meaning, it originally was a "holy evening," one where the saints were honored and God was praised. Aleteia.org
